Hurricane Ginger Aims At Coastline

MIAMI (AP) — Hurricane Ginger ceased her aimless Atlantic wandering and headed toward North Carolina today, threatening its coastline with 90 miles per hour winds and treacherous tides.

Ginger was about 325 miles southeast of the Wilmington-Cape Hatteras, N.C., area at 6 a.m. EDT, and headed northwest at 10 m.p.h. The National Hurricane Center said winds approaching the 75 m.p.h. hurricane force would be felt along the coastline tonight.

"Gale force winds (40-75 m.p.h.) will occur mainly just off the North Carolina coast today," forecaster Ray Kraft said. "We expect Ginger's size to remain about the same, although it may increase a little bit."

Gales from Ginger stretched out 275 miles in all directions. Her eye was 80 miles wide. But the amount of moisture in the oldest hurricane on the center's record books was in doubt.

"She was a pretty dry storm when she crossed over Bermuda last week, but sometimes those kind get out to sea again and become very wet," Kraft said. "It's a huge storm in area but it's not as strong as its size would indicate."

Kraft said heavy swells will affect the coastal areas from the Virginia Capes to South Florida and through the out islands of the Bahamas.

"Small craft should remain in port along the Carolina coasts," the forecaster warned. "Elsewhere small craft should exercise caution and not venture far from safe harbor. The heavy surf will be accompanied by dangerous undertows."

Throughout Tuesday aircraft monitored Ginger as Navy and Air Force planes bombarded her with silver iodide crystals in a Project Storm Fury seeding run.

The four seeding passes, made in an attempt to disperse her energy, were the last planned for Ginger. The storm was born Sept. 10 and has been seeded twice.

Dr. Cecil Gentry, director of Storm Fury, said it would take "a few weeks" before scientists could assess the effect of the seedings. But he said visual and radar observations showed that cloud bands in the seeded area of the hurricane changed character.

"With each seeding, we had to move further away from the center of the storm to find clouds suitable for seeding," he said.

Federal Aid To States In Future?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Representatives of the nation's governors say they have been assured by Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., that the House Ways and Means Committee will give priority next year to some form of federal aid for local governments.

Gov. Arch A. Moore of West Virginia, newly elected chairman of the National Governors' Conference, said Tuesday that he came out of an hour-and-a-half meeting with Mills "quite encouraged."

"Revenue sharing is very much alive." But Moore indicated the governors did not press for that label on whatever legislation the committee may produce.

Mills has said repeatedly the committee will not approve President Nixon's proposal to earmark a portion of federal revenues for apportionment among states, cities and other local governments.

But Mills said he thinks some form of aid, especially for hard-pressed local governments, can be worked out.

The governors who talked with him indicated the specific shape of such legislation was not discussed in detail.

Nixon, Gromyko Hold Talks In Warmer Atmosphere

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon meets with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko on disarmament and other issues today in an atmosphere warmed by several new U.S.-Soviet agreements.

The two superpower nations joined Tuesday in proposing a biological-weapons-ban treaty to the Geneva disarmament committee. Their two foreign ministers will sign accords here Thursday on modernizing the Washington-Moscow hotline and on avoiding accidental nuclear war.

But optimism from these developments and the historic Big Four Berlin Agreement signed Sept. 4 is tempered by significant differences remaining between the United States and the Soviet Union on a host of important subjects.

On European security—a topic slated for Nixon-Gromyko attention—the Kremlin has been less forthcoming than U.S. officials had hoped.

Gromyko's call at the White House, while he is in this country attending the U.N. General Assembly fall session, has become an annual affair. Today's session is the President's first talk with a high Soviet envoy in a year.

Gromyko delivered a relatively moderate policy speech at the United Nations Tuesday, declaring that an improved political climate is favorable for Moscow's proposed world disarmament conference. The Soviet foreign minister portrayed the time as ripe for a conference on European security and other tension-easing steps.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers sounded out Gromyko at the U.N. during a dinner meeting last Friday and got little new information on what the Kremlin really has in mind for a European security conference and East-West talks on mutual troop cuts in Europe.

The Berlin access agreement, which has a bearing on progress on the European security question, is currently at an impasse over East-West German disagreement on terms for carrying out the accord.

Colliding Fronts Spark Violent Weather In U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cool air sweeping across the north central part of the nation today sparked thunderstorms as it collided with summerlike heat dominating the South and East.

Tornadoes, hailstorms and thunderstorms erupted as a cold front rolled across Wisconsin and into Michigan Tuesday night.

Twisters in central Wisconsin damaged 20 to 25 mobile homes and some 20 barns and slightly injured at least a dozen persons. Damage in Marathon County was estimated at $1.5 million, according to the National Weather Service.

Severe lightning near Traverse City, Mich., set fires and downed power lines. The storm also brought large hail.

The cool air was expected to touch off more storms as it moved across the upper Ohio Valley and the lower Midwest.

A cloud shield over the Northwest brought rain to lower elevations and snow to upland areas. Travel warnings were posted for Montana and Northern Idaho.

Hot, muggy weather clung to the South and East where temperatures Tuesday reached into the 80s and 90s.

Out in the Atlantic, Hurricane Ginger turned west with her 90-mile-an-hour winds. The storm was centered several hundred miles east of Jacksonville, Fla., early today.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 30 at Evanston, Wyo., to 80 in Chicago.

Nixon Tells POW Families Of Hope For Men's Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Just hours after a few relatives of American prisoners of war picketed the White House, President Nixon paid a surprise visit to their convention and said he expects to bring the men home.

The President's appearance at a Tuesday night banquet of the National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia broke the administration's relative quiet on the subject with promises from Nixon and his secretary of defense for revived activity.

Nixon described the POW-MIA problem "as being one that has presidential priority" and said his goal is "obtaining the release of all our prisoners of war and missing in action, wherever they may be in Southeast Asia."

Beginning at noon Tuesday some dissident members of the league had picketed the White House with placards asking Nixon to set a date for withdrawal from Vietnam to win release of POWs.

The convention, in an afternoon business session, adopted several resolutions, including some expressing distress with what delegates viewed as a lack of progress and asking a speedy end to the war.

But the convention has solidly staved off efforts by some members to enter political areas and endorse specific actions such as a withdrawal date.

Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, who spoke at the banquet after Nixon, received a warm ovation when he stated:

U.S. Judges Wage-Price Arbiters?

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Sun-Times reported in today's editions that the White House is considering setting up a commission of federal judges who would make final decisions on wage-price issues during Phase 2 of President Nixon's economic program.

"The highly secret planning in the White House is pointed now at the creation of a super-panel, a commission of federal judges," Charles Bartlett, the newspaper's syndicated columnist, wrote.

He said that because federal judges have been confirmed by the Senate as impartial arbiters and because they will face issues of equity, they seem to fit in the role being drafted by Nixon's economic planners.

Bartlett did not cite his sources by name.

"Finding no grounds for optimism that conditions will be ripe to lift the restraints before November 1972," Bartlett said, "the President's specialists are struggling to design an apparatus which will be so manifestly equitable that no group—particularly labor—can reject it with impunity from public opinion."

Arson Said Cause Of Station Blaze

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati Fire Chief Bert Lugannani has ruled arson was the cause of a blaze that scorched the rear of the Walnut Hills district police station and damaged four patrol cars.

No injuries were reported in the fire early Tuesday morning but the station had to be evacuated. Damage was set at $3,000.

in separate floor actions late Tuesday.

The Senate Saturday passed a smaller interim funding measure to pay state bills through Oct. 15, but an amendment in the House Finance-Appropriations Committee Tuesday afternoon extended it.

The extra time was sought by both political parties to allow a joint House-Senate Conference Committee as much time as possible to work on a 1971-73 budget and tax program already 91 days overdue.

The entire question of taxes and appropriations—in its 29th week before the Legislature—was tossed to the joint committee when the House voted 81-7 Tuesday evening not to accept a Senate-passed sales tax plan.

The differences that are to be worked out there run deep. They are philosophic, not mechanical.

Thieu Orders Tough Policy On Terrorism

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu today ordered police to "shoot to kill" antigovernment rioters who throw firebombs or otherwise endanger lives.

Government spokesman Vu Khanh, confirming Thieu's order, said the president told police officials, "We are living in a period of political danger and turmoil. It is the duty of police to keep order. It is their duty to react to any violence."

"Whoever creates violence in the streets for the purpose of terrorism must be severely punished. Those who are caught red-handed burning autos must be shot on the spot if necessary."

Thieu made no mention of continuing demonstrations against his unopposed candidacy in Sunday's presidential election.

Thieu issued the order to some 400 police officials from around the country gathered for a meeting at the national police headquarters in Saigon.

Shortly after the meeting, a terrorist bomb exploded in front of a crowded restaurant in suburban Gia Dinh, wounding 24 persons, all Vietnamese.

It was the fourth major terrorist bombing in the Saigon area in the past two weeks.

The Gia Dinh Province chief, Col. Le Van Tu, said the wounded included five policemen, 14 soldiers, two women, two children and a civilian man.

Tu said preliminary reports showed no one was killed. A vehicle belonging to an American contracting firm was firebombed in central Saigon earlier in the day. There were no injuries.

No new antigovernment protests were reported in Saigon, but in Da Nang several hundred students staged anti-Thieu demonstrations at two high schools.

Seek Way To Avert Air Fare War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two U.S. airlines have appealed to the government to avert an airfare war in the once friendly skies over the North Atlantic.

Pan American and Trans World, both with scheduled transatlantic service, made the appeal in a private meeting with the Civil Aeronautics Board. Airline officials pleaded for action before Oct. 15, lest what they say are disastrous fare cuts be forced on carriers.

The first stirrings of the tickle-counter battle came when the German airline Lufthansa refused to go along with North Atlantic airfare levels agreed upon by the International Air Transport Association. Lufthansa proposed price slashes instead.

Pan Am and Trans World proposed the CAB, through the State Department, notify the West German government that the Lufthansa fare proposal is improper and unacceptable under terms of a U.S.-German air agreement, an action Canada already has taken.

The CAB took the request under advisement.

Kidney Patient's Football Donation Repaid Many-Fold

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A Louisville resident who donated $5 to the boosters of the high school football team at Cambridge, Ohio, will get up to $25,000 in return from the Ohio community.

Ray Volz, 37, made the $5 contribution even though he needed the much larger sum for a kidney transplant operation plus medication and treatment. Cambridge remembers Volz as an All-Ohio football player and top basketball player who went on to Denison University at Granville, Ohio, on a scholarship after graduating from high school in 1952.

When members of the team learned of Volz's $5 donation and his need for the operation, they originated the idea of "Ray Volz Night."

On Oct. 15, the team, the school's athletic department and many of his former teammates and townspeople will turn out at a football game to honor Volz. His old football jersey will be retired and money will be collected to help pay for the transplant operation.

Volz, his wife Betty, and their daughter will be flown to the event at no cost. The community has set a goal of $25,000.

Volz, who is down to 150 pounds from 240, has been a dialysis patient at the University of Louisville kidney center since June 1967. His blood must be washed for about six hours twice a week by an artificial kidney device.

The cost of each treatment is $175, Volz said. He was a salesman for a baking firm until he was forced to quit in May 1970.

He says he sent the $5 contribution to his school's boosters "because they needed it."

Four Seasons Plan Bared

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A proposed reorganization plan of the Four Seasons Nursing Centers of America filed in federal court in Oklahoma City, Okla., Tuesday, would offer Ohio $3 million in stock in the new company.

This was disclosed by the Ohio attorney general's office Wednesday after the reorganization plan was reported in Oklahoma City.

Four Seasons owes Ohio $4 million it obtained in loans from the state. The attorney general's office has been urging the federal court to put Ohio in a high priority in receipt of any funds from Four Seasons in its bankruptcy reorganization.

The offer being made Ohio was being studied by the attorney general's office, which indicated it was not pleased with the proposal.

Spearheads Report Little Enemy Contact

TAY NINH, Vietnam (AP) — Thousands of South Vietnamese reinforcements and scores of U.S. bombers launched a counter offensive along the South Vietnamese-Cambodian border today to reopen a 30-mile stretch of highway cut by North Vietnamese forces threatening to overrun a half dozen allied positions.

Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Minh, commander of South Vietnamese forces in the 3rd Military Region, said initial reports indicated ground contact with the enemy was light.

The 3rd Region includes Saigon and 11 surrounding provinces and shares 231 miles of border with Cambodia. The northwestern sector of the region above Tay Ninh city has been under heavy pressure since Sunday.

Minh said two North Vietnamese divisions have launched a three-pronged campaign aimed at overrunning South Vietnamese troops along the frontier, stepping up sapper and shelling attacks in the region and exploiting the current political unrest in Saigon.

One South Vietnamese base, Tran Hung Dao, 18 miles north of Tay Ninh city, was in danger of being overrun and U.S. B52 (Continued on Page 18)

Some Park Closures Permanent?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Natural Resources Director William Nye says some state parks might have to stay closed or park fees might have to be increased if the budget adopted by the Ohio Senate becomes law.

Nye said Tuesday the Senate cut $1.8 million from the $41.1 million hold-the-line continuation budget prepared last year by the outgoing Rhodes administration. Gov. John Gilligan had requested the same amount.

Unless the money is restored by the Senate-House conference committee, Nye said, there will be serious difficulties in trying to provide full operation of Ohio state parks in the next two years.

Nye said he is considering three possible steps that might be taken if the budget cuts are not restored:

—Keep some high cost parks closed.

—Operate all or most of the parks with short staffs.

—Increase existing park use fees and institute new ones, possibly to include a day-use fee from picnickers and swimmers and an overnight surcharge to be paid by people staying in campgrounds, cabins and lodges.

"Our operating costs will be increased next year by both the effects of inflation and the opening of a number of new park facilities, including the Salt Fork lodge and cabin complex and three camping areas," Nye said.

Ohio Assembly Gives Self 30-Day Cushion On Budget

By TAILMAN KRUMM Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Both houses of the 109th General Assembly have agreed to allow themselves a 30-day cushion in efforts to fashion a workable compromise from basic tax and budget differences.

The cushion? A $172 million interim appropriation — the state's sixth since July 1—for the entire month of October, approved by the two chambers in separate floor actions late Tuesday.

The Senate Saturday passed a smaller interim funding measure to pay state bills through Oct. 15, but an amendment in the House Finance-Appropriations Committee Tuesday afternoon extended it.

The extra time was sought by both political parties to allow a joint House-Senate Conference Committee as much time as possible to work on a 1971-73

The entire question of taxes and appropriations—in its 29th week before the Legislature—was tossed to the joint committee when the House voted 81-7 Tuesday evening not to accept a Senate-passed sales tax plan.

The differences that are to be worked out there run deep. They are philosophic, not mechanical.

The House on July 14 passed legislation calling for a graduated, personal income and corporate profit tax to fund state operations. The Senate Saturday decided on a 1.5-cent boost in sales taxes to keep government going for the next two years.

Though spending levels are not too far apart, large cuts were made by the Senate in education and welfare allocations.

Rep. Norman Murdock, R-70

Cincinnati, chairman of the House Health, Education and Welfare Committee, was quick to voice his frustration with education cuts: "A minimal glance is all I needed to see that we must not concur."

Murdock's committee sent to the Senate $1.6 billion for elementary and secondary education. It came back minus $114 million. "Education cannot afford that kind of reduction," he warned.

Rep. E.W. Lampson, R-38 Jefferson, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee that put together the income tax option, offered other reflections.

"There are so many changes," he said, "both in the method of taxing . . . and in the implications of those taxes that . . . I think it would be very unwise to concur with the Senate action."

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A Louisville resident who donated $5 to the boosters of the high school football team at Cambridge, Ohio, will get up to $25,000 in return from the Ohio community.

Ray Volz, 37, made the $5 contribution even though he needed the much larger sum for a kidney transplant operation plus medication and treatment. Cambridge remembers Volz as an All-Ohio football player and top basketball player who went on to Denison University at Granville, Ohio, on a scholarship after graduating from high school in 1952.

When members of the team learned of Volz's $5 donation and his need for the operation, they originated the idea of "Ray Volz Night."

On Oct. 15, the team, the school's athletic department and many of his former teammates and townspeople will turn out at a football game to honor Volz. His old football jersey will be retired and money will be collected to help pay for the transplant operation.

Volz, his wife Betty, and their daughter will be flown to the event at no cost. The community has set a goal of $25,000.

Volz, who is down to 150 pounds from 240, has been a dialysis patient at the University of Louisville kidney center since June 1967. His blood must be washed for about six hours twice a week by an artificial kidney device.

The cost of each treatment is $175, Volz said. He was a salesman for a baking firm until he was forced to quit in May 1970.

He says he sent the $5 contribution to his school's boosters "because they needed it."

Four Seasons Plan Bared

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A proposed reorganization plan of the Four Seasons Nursing Centers of America filed in federal court in Oklahoma City, Okla., Tuesday, would offer Ohio $3 million in stock in the new company.

This was disclosed by the Ohio attorney general's office Wednesday after the reorganization plan was reported in Oklahoma City.

Four Seasons owes Ohio $4 million it obtained in loans from the state. The attorney general's office has been urging the federal court to put Ohio in a high priority in receipt of any funds from Four Seasons in its bankruptcy reorganization.

The offer being made Ohio was being studied by the attorney general's office, which indicated it was not pleased with the proposal.

Spearheads Report Little Enemy Contact

TAY NINH, Vietnam (AP) — Thousands of South Vietnamese reinforcements and scores of U.S. bombers launched a counter offensive along the South Vietnamese-Cambodian border today to reopen a 30-mile stretch of highway cut by North Vietnamese forces threatening to overrun a half dozen allied positions.

Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Minh, commander of South Vietnamese forces in the 3rd Military Region, said initial reports indicated ground contact with the enemy was light.

The 3rd Region includes Saigon and 11 surrounding provinces and shares 231 miles of border with Cambodia. The northwestern sector of the region above Tay Ninh city has been under heavy pressure since Sunday.

Minh said two North Vietnamese divisions have launched a three-pronged campaign aimed at overrunning South Vietnamese troops along the frontier, stepping up sapper and shelling attacks in the region and exploiting the current political unrest in Saigon.

One South Vietnamese base, Tran Hung Dao, 18 miles north of Tay Ninh city, was in danger of being overrun and U.S. B52 (Continued on Page 18)

Some Park Closures Permanent?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Natural Resources Director William Nye says some state parks might have to stay closed or park fees might have to be increased if the budget adopted by the Ohio Senate becomes law.

Nye said Tuesday the Senate cut $1.8 million from the $41.1 million hold-the-line continuation budget prepared last year by the outgoing Rhodes administration. Gov. John Gilligan had requested the same amount.

Unless the money is restored by the Senate-House conference committee, Nye said, there will be serious difficulties in trying to provide full operation of Ohio state parks in the next two years.

Nye said he is considering three possible steps that might be taken if the budget cuts are not restored:

- Keep some high cost parks closed.
- Operate all or most of the parks with short staffs.
- Increase existing park fees and institute new ones, possibly to include a day-use fee from picnickers and swimmers and an overnight surcharge to be paid by people staying in campgrounds, cabins and lodges.

"Our operating costs will be increased next year by both the effects of inflation and the opening of a number of new park facilities, including the Salt Fork lodge and cabin complex and three camping areas," Nye said.

Ohio Assembly Gives Self 30-Day Cushion On Budget

By TAHLMAN KRUMM Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Both houses of the 109th General Assembly have agreed to allow themselves a 30-day cushion in efforts to fashion a workable compromise on basic tax and budget differences.

The cushion? A $172 million interim appropriation — the state's sixth since July 1—for the entire month of October, approved by the two chambers in separate floor actions late Tuesday.

The Senate Saturday passed a smaller interim funding measure to pay state bills through Oct. 15, but an amendment in the House Finance-Appropriations Committee Tuesday afternoon extended it.

The extra time was sought by both political parties to allow a joint House-Senate Conference Committee as much time as possible to work on a 1971-73 budget and tax program already 91 days overdue.

The entire question of taxes and appropriations — in its 29th week before the Legislature — was tossed to the joint committee when the House voted 81-7 Tuesday evening not to accept a Senate-passed sales tax plan.

The differences that are to be worked out there run deep. They are philosophic, not mechanical.

The House on July 14 passed legislation calling for a graduated, personal income and corporate profit tax to fund state operations. The Senate Saturday decided on a 1.5-cent boost in sales taxes to keep government going for the next two years.

Though spending levels are not too far apart, large cuts were made by the Senate in education and welfare allocations.

Rep. Norman Murdock, R-70, chairman of the House Health, Education and Welfare Committee, was quick to voice his frustration with education cuts: "A minimal glance is all I needed to see that we must not concur."

Murdock's committee sent to the Senate $1.6 billion for elementary and secondary education. It came back minus $114 million. "Education cannot afford that kind of reduction," he warned.

Rep. E.W. Lampson, R-38 Jefferson, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee that put together the income tax option, offered other reflections.

"There are so many changes," he said, "both in the method of taxing . . . and in the implications of those taxes that I think it would be very unwise to concur with the Senate action."

Three Plead Innocent At Arraignment

After two postponements, arraignment hearings were finally held Wednesday for Richard Brink and Paul McMackin. Samuel Ray Butts voluntarily returned from Missouri to face charges here of uttering and publishing a forged check. These men were the last to face arraignment proceedings among those indicted by the September grand jury.

Brink, of South Bloomfield, appeared with his attorney Steve Gussler, and entered a plea of innocent to defrauding an innkeeper of $250.

McMackin also entered pleas of not guilty to issuing a bad check for over $1,000 to Bowling St. O'Kays and obtaining property under false pretenses.

On Tuesday, Samuel Butts pleaded not guilty to a check forgery charge.

On Tuesday, Frank Lugenbeel had his probation continued until Feb. 2, 1975 for violation of the terms of his probation. He was originally placed on probation for issuing bad checks and moving mortgaged property out of state.

James Zickafos, W. Main St., charged with setting fire to an automobile on Jones Road, appeared in court on a bill of information, entering a plea of guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary for 1-3 years.

Coal Strike Starts Early

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wildcat coal strike spread to four Wyoming County mines this morning, idling at least 2,000 West Virginia miners in two counties. Another 600 men were reported idle by a walkout in southwestern Pennsylvania.

"The word is spreading down here that the Thursday evening shift will be the last one to work," a coal company official said in southern West Virginia today.

The strike idled 1,500 miners today at four Eastern Associated Coal Corp. mines in Wyoming County. The walkout idled workers at Kopperston No. 1 and No. 2 mines Tuesday and spread today to the Harris No. 1 and No. 2 mines.

"We don't know why they're not working," an Eastern official said. A foreman at the Kopperston mines said miners are "getting nervous over the contract."

The strike also continued today at two Logan County mines where about 500 men are idle.

Glass Strike Comes To End

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two West Virginia glass plants ended strikes today and resumed production while two others remained idle as a walk-out called by the American Flint Glass Workers Union remained partially in effect.

The Seneca Glass Co. in Morgantown resumed production on the morning shift today as did the Viking Glass Co. in New Martinsville. About 150 workers are affected at Seneca with almost 300 returning to their jobs at Viking Glass.

Still on strike are 400 workers at Fostoria Glass Co. in Moundsville and 300 workers at the Fenton Art Glass Co. in Williamstown. Local negotiations are continuing at those locations.

New Currency System Urged By IMF Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — The International Monetary Fund has pressed its member nations to move quickly toward building a new structure of money-exchange rates to restore order to the world monetary system.

The worldwide monetary disruption "contains the dangers of instability and disorder in currency and trade relationships," the IMF's executive directors said in a resolution approved Tuesday night.

The resolution urged "reduction of restrictive trade and exchange policies," including President Nixon's 10-per-cent import surcharge, by all 118 member nations of the fund.

And it established the first legal basis for eventual reform of the monetary system, possibly through eliminating the gold-dollar standard on which it is based.

The resolution, which appears headed for certain adoption Friday by the IMF's board of governors, puts the IMF on record as supporting urgent currency realignment apt to be hammered out by the 10 most-powerful financial nations of the non-Communist world in meetings in October and November.

The IMF is overseer of the international monetary system, but its very survival was threatened when President Nixon announced Aug. 15 the United States would no longer redeem dollars for gold.

The dollar-gold relationship is the keystone of the system—the dollar has a value in terms of gold, all other currencies are stated in terms of the dollar.

The resolution made four requests to the member countries. The first urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

Y Announces Fall Program

Girls Gymnastics and sports will be offered in the Fall YMCA Program, according to Y Director Harold Hewitt. Miss Barbara Burgett, OSU Education Major and gymnastics teacher, will conduct the two new classes in Co-Ed Tumbling and Girls Gymnastics.

Starting the week of Oct. 25 the Fall Y Informal Education Program, Harold said, will include candle making, Christmas decorations, beginning and intermediate yoga classes, furniture upholstery, women's volleyball, typing, shorthand, business English, women's exercise classes, co-ed karate and judo and knitting classes.

For the younger boys and girls, the Y's Fall Program includes new dancing classes, Saturday morning art classes taught by William Chandler, co-ed tumbling, girls athletics, Saturday BB gun and archery instructions and youth tours and trips.

For junior and senior high students, the fall activities will include a cycling club, Y Leaders Club, junior and senior basketball leagues and the new girls gymnastics program. Already being used is the Y's third floor Drop-In-Center.

Open from 3 to 5 p.m. daily, third floor activities are pool, ping pong, cards and dancing. Starting October 8, the YMCA will hold Friday evening Teenage Open House and Dances from 7 to 10:30 p.m.

The fall gym schedule, Hewitt said, remains the same as the spring schedule. Grade school boys use the gym daily from 3 to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 to 12 noon.

The Junior high students use the gym on Tuesday from 6 to 9 p.m. and on Saturdays from noon to 2:30 p.m. Senior high boys evening schedule is for Wednesday from 7 to 10:30 p.m. The Men's gym schedule includes Monday through Friday from noon to 1 p.m. and 5 to 6 p.m. New this fall, Hewitt said, will be a Men's Volleyball on Tuesday and Thursday from 12 noon to 1 p.m. and Thursdays from 6 to 7:30 p.m. New open basketball will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Thursdays. Fall building activities schedule and Informal Education Brochures will be ready for distribution on October 7.

State Office Built Fast

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — George F. Busche, executive director of the Ohio Building Authority, said today construction of the new 42-story state office building across from the Capitol is two weeks ahead of schedule.

He reported costs are running lower than expected and that 10 construction contracts have been or are about to be awarded, totaling $45.2 million. Busche said there is only one other contract—for the interior including partitions, floor coverings, draperies, window blinds, estimated to cost about $2 million.

Busche said the $1.1 million "will more than cover" the costs of construction change orders and other unforeseen expenses. Another $200,000 will cover various strength tests that will be conducted to insure that construction is progressing properly.

"We are real pleased with the way the bids have run," Busche said, adding the total figure is expected to be well below a previously anticipated $60 million.

Castro Lashes U.S. 'Lies' About Shutoff Of Airlift

MIAMI (AP) — Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro has threatened to encourage hijackers of American airplanes if the United States continues "a campaign of lies and hypocrisy" over the shutdown of the Cuban Refugee Airlift.

In a Havana speech, Castro declared that "cheap propaganda by the imperialists" may encourage Cubans to attempt "illegal departures" such as escapes in small boats.

"The imperialists should remember that we have never pinned medals on any hijackers of their planes arriving here," he shouted.

"But to those encouraging illegality here, let them know we shall encourage illegality there."

The prime minister spoke in Havana's Revolutionary Plaza Tuesday night in a ceremony commemorating the 11th anniversary of the creation of the neighborhood Committees for the Defense of the Revolution. His speech was carried over radio and television and monitored in Miami.

Castro denied that Cuba had "unilaterally suspended the flights." The fact is that the list is exhausted," he said.

He referred to his orders grounding the airlift after some 1,700 Cubans awaiting the flights arrive in the United States.

Castro's remarks came on speech in which he "opened the doors of Cuba to anyone willing to leave." That offer, quickly accepted by the United State, resulted in the establishment of the twice-a-day Freedom Flights, which have brought almost 246,000 Cubans to the United States.

When the flights began in 1965, the United States and Cuba drew up a master list containing an undisclosed number of names. In May 1966 Castro said he would accept no more names for the list. On Aug. 31, he said that of 33,000 names still on the list, 900 still wanted to leave but the rest had died, left Cuba by other means or no longer wanted to leave. He also added 1,388 names of persons he said could leave before the flights end.

The flights resumed Monday and the 900 persons on the old list are expected to arrive in the United States by the end of this week.

Administration Seeks Delay Of Mansfield Resolution

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration reportedly is seeking to delay until after Sunday's South Vietnamese presidential election a senate vote on Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's new move to force total U.S. withdrawal from Indochina in six months.

The amendment, like one adopted earlier but diluted in conference after House rejection, is expected to pass the Senate.

Congressional sources say the administration fears immediate adoption of the amendment would adversely affect the climate around President Nguyen Van Thieu's unopposed re-election bid.

Another reported factor in the attempt at delay is this week's meeting in Washington of the National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia. The league reportedly is split over whether the best way to free prisoners is through Nixon administration policies or by setting a fixed date for withdrawal.

Mansfield's amendment will be debated Thursday, and assistant Democratic Leader Robert C. Byrd, said a vote "is expected that day." But no agreement for a vote had been reached when the Senate adjourned Tuesday.

In the meantime, senators are delaying with an abbreviated version of the two-year fight over the Safeguard missile defense system and with a move to delete funds for the Navy's F14 fighter from the $21-billion military procurement bill.

Two amendments deal with Safeguard: A proposal by Sen. Harold E. Hughes, D-Iowa, to delete $639 million for procurement of the antiballistic missile and a move by Hughes and Sen. William Saxbe, R-Ohio, to hold up construction, procurement and deployment funds pending a possible U.S.-Soviet agreement at the strategic arms limitation talks.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., is sponsor of the amendment to delete $801.6 million for the F14, contending the F4 could, with slight modifications, outperform the new plane.

Also up is another amendment by Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., to restrict funds for the

2 Accidents Under Probe

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department is investigating two accidents that occurred in Pickaway County Tuesday in which three people were injured.

Bobbie S. Foreman, S. Scioto St., Ashville, was enroute to a doctor's office with severe stomach pains 12:20 p.m. Tuesday, when she became ill and pulled off the Ashville-Fairfield Road.

The car coasted forward into a fence on the right side of the roadway.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Hoover, investigating officer, ordered her transported to Berger Hospital with an injury to her right rib cage.

John R. Webb, 31, 131 Fairview Ave., was treated at Berger Hospital for abrasions to his left shoulder, arm and hip, following a one-car accident on State Route 22, 9 p.m. Tuesday night.

A passenger in his car, James D. Webb, was also taken to the Berger emergency room for abrasions and lacerations of his head and bruises to his right side and shoulder.

According to their report filed with the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, they were traveling west on State Route 22 when the transmission on Webb's late model car allegedly locked, throwing them off the roadway.

The car then hit a concrete guy wire fixture and flipped in the air, landing on its top.

Three Plead Innocent At Arraignment

After two postponements, arraignment hearings were finally held Wednesday for Richard Brink and Paul McMackin. Samuel Ray Butts voluntarily returned from Missouri to face charges here of uttering and publishing a forged check. These men were the last to face arraignment proceedings among those indicted by the September grand jury.

Brink, of South Bloomfield, appeared with his attorney Steve Gussler, and entered a plea of innocent to defrauding an innkeeper of $250.

McMackin also entered pleas of not guilty to issuing a bad check for over $1,000 to Bowling Stockyards and obtaining property under false pretenses.

On Tuesday, Samuel Butts pleaded not guilty to a check forgery charge.

New Currency System Urged By IMF Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — The International Monetary Fund has pressed its member nations to move quickly toward building a new structure of money-exchange rates to restore order to the world monetary system.

The worldwide monetary disruption "contains the dangers of instability and disorder in currency and trade relationships," the IMF's executive directors said in a resolution approved Tuesday night.

The resolution urged "reduction of restrictive trade and exchange policies," including President Nixon's 10-per-cent import surcharge, by all 118 member nations of the fund.

And it established the first legal basis for eventual reform of the monetary system, possibly through eliminating the gold-dollar standard on which it is based.

The resolution, which appears headed for certain adoption Friday by the IMF's board of governors, puts the IMF on record as supporting urgent currency realignment apt to be hammered out by the 10 most powerful financial nations of the non-Communist world in meetings in October and November.

The IMF is overseer of the international monetary system, but its very survival was threatened when President Nixon announced Aug. 15 the United States would no longer redeem dollars for gold.

The dollar-gold relationship is the keystone of the system—the dollar has a value in terms of gold, all other currencies are stated in terms of the dollar.

The resolution made four requests to the member countries. The first urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The second urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The third urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The fourth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The fifth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The sixth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The seventh urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The eighth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The ninth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The tenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The eleventh urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twelfth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The thirteenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The fourteenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The fifteenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The sixteenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The seventeenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The eighteenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The nineteenth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twentieth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twenty-first urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twenty-second urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twenty-third urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twenty-fourth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

The twenty-fifth urges each country to set a value on its money in relation to each other country's money, recommends countries tear down barriers to trade and the international movement of money.

Y Announces Fall Program

Girls Gymnastics and sports will be offered in the Fall YMCA Program, according to Y Director Harold Hewitt.

Miss Barbara Burgett, OSU Education Major and gymnastics teacher, will conduct the two new classes in Co-Ed Tumbling and Girls Gymnastics.

Starting the week of Oct. 25 the Fall Y Informal Education Program, Harold said, will include candle making, Christmas decorations, beginning and intermediate yoga classes, furniture upholstery, women's volleyball, typing, shorthand, business English, women's exercise classe, co-ed karate and judo and knitting classes.

For the younger boys and girls, the Y's Fall Program includes new dancing classes, Saturday morning art classes taught by William Chandler, co-ed tumbling, girls athletics, Saturday BB gun and archery instructions and youth tours and trips.

For junior and senior high students, the fall activities will include a cycling club, Y Leaders Club, junior and senior basketball leagues and the new girls gymnastics program. Already being used is the Y's third floor Drop-In-Center.

Open from 3 to 5 p.m. daily, third floor activities are pool, ping pong, cards and dancing. Starting October 8, the YMCA will hold Friday evening Teenage Open House and Dances from 7 to 10:30 p.m.

The fall gym schedule, Hewitt said, remains the same as the spring schedule. Grade school boys use the gym daily from 3 to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 to 12 noon.

The Junior high students use the gym on Tuesday from 6 to 9 p.m. and on Saturdays from noon to 2:30 p.m. Senior high boys evening schedule is for Wednesday from 7 to 10:30 p.m. The Men's gym schedule includes Monday through Friday from noon to 1 p.m. and 5 to 6 p.m. New this fall, Hewitt said, will be a Men's Volleyball on Tuesday and Thursday from 12 noon to 1 p.m. and Thursdays from 6 to 7:30 p.m. New open basketball will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Thursdays. Fall building activities schedule and Informal Education Brochures will be ready for distribution on October 7.

Wilted Flowers

The final chapter appears to have been written on the flower children who first appeared on the American scene about a decade ago, reached their zenith about 1967 and began to disappear rapidly thereafter. The disenchanting hippies whose aim in life was simply to exist in limbo proved no match for the harder, drug-oriented youth cast-offs who followed in their wake.

Even Greenwich Village and San Francisco's Haight-Asbury, the two main habitats for the disoriented youth who rejected middle class values but found nothing to replace them, are inhospitable to the flower children today.

The hoods and petty hoodlums who found the defenseless youths ideal targets have changed both districts into high crime areas. What happened to the hippies is graphically revealed by the Haight-Asbury Research Project, which followed for four years the lives of 250 of the first drop outs in that section.

Mostly from upper middle class families they rejected promising futures for a new order they believed they were creating. Now they are dejected, working at jobs below their potential, still rejecting "straight" society but also rejecting the hippie life they helped create.

They are still lonely, aimless outcasts — by their own choice, but without the advantages they rejected years ago. It is a pitiful story, but filled with lessons for other youths, if they will only take note.

Arab Business In Israeli

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
NABLUS, ISRAEL — Are the Arabs of the West Bank, whose territory has been under the control of the Israelis ever since the Six-Day War, merely playing possum, waiting for political delivery in a new round of Soviet-financed Egyptian-Syrian hostilities against Israel? Or, are they reconciled to being part of an Israel with permanent eastern boundaries at the Jordan River and on the Golan Heights above the Sea of Galilee?

It would take a mind reader with a specialist's knowledge of the Arabic tongue and ways of thinking to answer such questions, so I will not try. I'll just stick to the record of an interesting foray in the company of a young Israeli researcher with a cultural anthropologist's bent, Mr. Israel Stockman of the Shilock Institute for Middle Eastern Studies, who has been cultivating Arab friends in the conquered West Bank villages, municipalities and refugee camps for four years.

We set out from Jerusalem along the road to Nablus, past the birthplace of Sirhan Sirhan, the killer of Robert Kennedy. It was through fairly desolate territory, for the old Jordanian government in the West Bank, unlike the Israeli government in lands to the west of Jerusalem, had never followed a policy of planting pines and cedars on the old terraced hills. We stopped for Turkish coffee at a roadside restaurant below the olive trees that make the old hills productive of something, and there was a long, leisurely chat with two weather-worn Arabs who wore the white headress known as the Kafiyeh, which is held in place by the akkal, a black band which is the badge of the older generation.

I couldn't understand a word, though it was all very amicable. Mr. Stockman explained to me that the country Arabs, in a world that has barely been introduced to electricity, don't know much about world politics; their concerns are local, and the Israelis haven't interfered with the administration of the West Bank villages, where 70 per cent of the Arab people live, or even with the few bigger municipalities.

I wanted to see a refugee camp, and Mr. Stockman took me to Balata, which is one still under UN supervision. It was incredibly cramped, stupidly so when you consider the empty hills that surround the villages; the toilets were all outside the huts and there was no running water. Yet there was prosperity within the camp, as the TV antennae proclaimed. Since the Six-Day War, the men in the camp have been going out to Israeli factories and farms by day, earning three to four times what they received before 1967. It is merely Israeli propaganda to observe that the Jordanians maintained the camp originally as a political gambit to keep a sense of grievance alive in displaced Palestinian arabs? Surely, with the unused land that was available, there was room to spread the refugees around.

We went into Nablus (pop. 45,000), the biggest town on the West Bank, for a morning snack of sweets concocted of honey, sheep milk cheese, ground grain and pistachio nuts. The owner of the sweet shop has been doing well during the post-1967 boom; he owns the only Jaguar in Nablus. Down the street we visited an Arab soap factory run by brothers in a big family that once boasted a prime minister of Jordan. I talked with one of the brothers who had once been a consul in New York; he asked me how the Shakespearean theatre in Stratford, Conn., was getting on. Again it was all very amicable. The factory imports olive oil from Spain and turns it into soap that is trucked through Jordan for sale in Kuwait. The Israelis don't interfere with the trade. I asked Mr. Stockman about the political feelings of the brothers. He said, "You see them sitting at the door of their business; they are taking a siesta."

When we moved out to a village for lunch with an Arab family, there was no siesta feeling of subdued waiting. The lunch was incredibly lavish; one was expected to eat a whole chicken along with good Arabian bread smothered in onions and herbs, using fingers in place of forks. I followed the conversation in translation; the two Arabs who were being so hospitable to an Israeli and his American friend own two taxis and a truck as well as the family olive trees, and they want very much to get a third taxi license, which demands some 60,000 Israeli pounds and some political influence. They also want to acquire a cement factory. The post-1967 economic boom on the West Bank has made for business co-existence between Arab and Jew; you could hardly call the two Arab taxicab capitalists collaborators, for they were intensely interested in improving themselves, not in ingratiating themselves with Israelis just for the sake of a smile.

Maybe, if the Soviets allow a new Egyptian move against Israel, Mr. Stockman would find his Arab friends less hospitable. But, for what it is worth, one Israeli researcher has had no difficulty during the present cease-fire in pursuing his cultural and anthropological investigations on the West Bank. The presumption is that if the Russians would get out of Egypt, a business co-existence might be followed by permanent peace between the Israelis and the Arabs.

Laff-A-Day

"Now, remember, this is just between you and me and the lamp post."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A DETERMINED young lady charged into a jewelry shop, planted a diamond ring on the counter and began giving the clerk a piece of her mind. The boss, overhearing the fracas, called out from the rear of the shop, "What does the young lady want?" The clerk called back, "She wants his money back."

There are so many trade journals in the United States, it's difficult even for those whose business it is editing magazines to keep track of them all. Every industry has its own periodical — and the very names of some of them are enough to give a non-subscriber pause. A few examples: Casket and Sunnyside (for the undertaking and embalming set), Chain Saw Age, Water Well Journal, Peanut Journal and Nut World, Broom and Broom Corn News, and Turf Grass Time. Some sport-sport at the old Corset and Underwear Review, however, decided not long ago to keep up with the times and changed the name to Body Fashions.

Peter De Vries, whose new novel, "Mrs. Wallop," is a delight, believes that hymns to beauty can be based, of all things, on college cheers, and gives this example to prove his point: "Flowers, flowers, rah rah rah! You've smelled 'em with your noses So let's hear it for the roses, Roses, roses, sis boom bah!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Our first child was born two months ago. It was found that one of his testicles had not descended properly.

How does this strange thing happen? Is an operation the only way to correct it?

Mr. and Mrs. W. S., Utah Dear Mr. and Mrs. S.: The miracle of embryo development defies imagination. Even sophisticated scientists wonder that any child can be born free of abnormality.

As the embryo developed the testicles descend slowly into the scrotal sac from a position high in the abdomen near the kidneys.

Sometimes one or both of the testes fail to make the descent properly. The condition is known as "cryptorchidism."

In some instances, the testicle may not descend into the sac until a year or two after birth. Doctors keep such children under close observation and often are able to encourage the descent with hormone injections.

When that method is unsuccessful, surgery during childhood is advised. Many excellent techniques have been created for successful results.

If the child is old enough, it would be important to explain thoroughly the problem to him so he has no psychological problems associated with a feeling of embarrassment. Children at a very early age have a remarkable comprehension for which they are not always given credit. It is surprising how often a child of 5 years can be made to understand that a problem exists and that every effort is being made to set it right.

After a bone in the arm or leg is fractured and heals, it is as strong as it ever was before.

We have been pampering our 11-year-old son and are keeping him out of sports for almost two years because of our fear of another fracture in the same spot.

Mrs. V. C. N., Fla. Dear Mrs. N.: When bones heal after a fracture they are as firm and as strong as they were before the injury.

It must be remembered that there is marked thinning or atrophy of the muscles, especially when a limb is kept in a cast for a long period of time.

These muscles must be encouraged to develop their strength once again — so that they, too, can return to normal.

A slow return to regulated exercise helps this. There is no reason why your son should be deprived of all the benefits of sports because of your unnecessary anxiety.

Do not force brandy down the throat of a person who has fainted or is unconscious.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Wednesday, Sept. 29, the 272nd day of 1971. There are 93 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1789, the U.S. War Department established a regular army with a strength of 700 men.

On this date: In 1066, William the Conqueror landed in England.

In 1918, in World War I, the Allies scored a decisive breakthrough of Germany's Hindenburg line.

In 1923, Britain began to govern Palestine under a mandate from the League of Nations.

In 1941, at a three-power conference in Moscow, the United States and Britain agreed to send large stores of war supplies to the Soviet Union to help resistance against Nazi invaders.

In 1957, nearly 300 persons were killed when an express train hit a parked oil train in West Pakistan.

In 1963, Pope Paul VI opened the second session of the Vatican Council.

Ten years ago: Syria won independence from the United Arab Republic by force of arms. The Egyptians decided not to oppose the revolt with force.

NEW YORK (AP) — Even in our so-called free enterprise economy there has always been a certain amount of pressure, rising and falling but never absent to fix prices rather than let them be set by competition.

The issue is at the forefront right now, of course, because even the President of the United States believes that the entire economy is endangered by a malfunctioning marketplace and that a freeze is necessary.

But some of the most conservative businessmen over the years have been the most convinced believers in the seemingly contradictory thesis that free competition would mean the end of free enterprise, or large elements of it.

And now, entirely separate from the issue of wage and price freezes, the Securities and Exchange Commission has agreed to fixed commissions rates—fixed higher—submitted to it by the New York Stock Exchange.

The higher rates—to begin after the general freeze—are said to be necessary in order that more firms aren't destroyed trying to handle the unprofitable business of small investors.

One after another broker has gone bankrupt or has been forced to merge.

In granting the higher rates, the SEC warned brokers against discouraging small investors from participating, mainly through imposing limits on the size of orders accepted or charging higher rates.

But Wall Street generally finds ways around warnings, and it seems quite likely that subtle discouragement and a disinclination to provide any but the most basic service will have the same effect.

Meanwhile, exhibit No. 1 stands ignored, although how or why is difficult to fathom. It is a brokerage firm that encourages the small investor, takes his orders, isn't afraid of competitive rates and is highly profitable.

The exhibit is Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, the largest commission broker in the entire industry, which reported profits right through the worst years of Wall Street's numerous calamities.

Merrill Lynch is expected this year to earn record-high profits.

True, Merrill Lynch, as did all other brokers, had the advantage of a surcharge on commissions. Even so, it would have been profitable, just as it has always been, partly because of size, largely because of professional management.

Since commission rates remain fixed, it will be difficult to say for certain whether inefficiency is being preserved and rewarded on Wall Street through fixed rather than competitive commissions.

But the small investor certainly is entitled to speculate whether it is he who is being subsidized, as claimed by brokerage houses, or they being assured a commission that might be higher than competitive forces would permit.

NEW YORK (AP) — When you say one thing, but think another—that's one kind of double talk.

And it's by far the most popular kind.

Some high-minded people criticize double talk and denounce it as hypocritical. But it probably arose in the first place because it is socially essential. If everyone went around always saying exactly what he thought, the world would echo with the sound of cracking skulls.

The advantage of double talk is this: What you say aloud wins you a reputation for tact, courtesy and kindness, while what you silently think keeps you basically honest with yourself.

For the benefit of the unsophisticated, here are a few common examples of feminine double talk. The spoken phrase is in quotes, followed in each case by what the girl or woman who said it actually was thinking:

"Don't you think it's a bit cold out to be walking, dear?"—Call us a cab or at least put your coat around me, you creep.

"Rugged you might say he was, but I don't see how any woman in her right mind could ever call him handsome."—I still wonder why he never called me for a second date.

City firemen, faced with a straw stack fire at the I. A. Jones farm in Jackson Twp. and no water supply, prevented its spread by raking the straw away from adjacent farm buildings.

Payments totalling over $8,000 made from the Ashville village treasury were claimed illegal by the state auditor. According to his report, the money, paid out from February 1929 to June 1930, was given to firms not contracted for under competitive bidding as required by Ohio law.

For a total of $29 a man could be completely outfitted in a suit and ambassador hat plus have an extra pair of trousers to go with the suit, if he shopped at Joseph's, 109-111 W. Main.

Forty-six teachers were employed to begin work in the Circleville City School system beginning Sept. 14. There were 446 students enrolled that term.

Elias Florence, a well-known farmer, died at his home on the family estate first owned by his grandfather, Jonathan Renick, who was one of the first settlers here. Florence was instrumental in the building of a school in Jackson Twp. and was honored by the erection of a bridge, named after him, which spanned Darby Creek near the school.

Circleville city tax payers were notified that they would be required to pay the rate of $19.30 per thousand on their property for 1931, a decrease of 40 cents per thousand over 1930's rates.

A fish fry at Brown's Chapel on the Williamsport - Clarksburg Pike, ended in tragedy when lightning struck a tool house in which the 50 picnickers had taken shelter during a storm. The church's 50 year old caretaker, Willard Ater, was killed by the lightning bolt and several others hurt.

Lincoln Mader was elected president of the CHS junior class. Other officers were Terry Hitchcock, Herbert Thomas and Howard Ater. Among other nominees for president was Rosemary Jackson.

Cliftona Theater went under new management Sept. 27 as owner Harry E. Clifton decided to quit the theater business and lease his building to the Circleville Theatre Corp., a subsidiary of a corporation controlling a number of movie houses in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

A little notice was printed in the Herald, memorializing events of Sept. 30 here in the field of transportation. In 1903, ground was first broken at the north line of Main St. on N. Court for Scioto Valley Traction Co. lines. In 1930, on the same date, the traction company made its final run.

Circleville residents were informed that the five-day work week was steadily gaining ground as a permanent labor policy in American industry.

Wilted Flowers

The final chapter appears to have been written on the flower children who first appeared on the American scene about a decade ago, reached their zenith about 1967 and began to disappear rapidly thereafter. The disenchanted hippies whose aim in life was simply to exist in limbo proved no match for the harder, drug-oriented youth cast-offs who followed in their wake.

Even Greenwich Village and San Francisco's Haight-Asbury, the two main habitats for the disoriented youth who rejected middle class values but found nothing to replace them, are inhospitable to the flower children today.

The hoods and petty hoodlums who found the defenseless youths ideal targets have changed both districts into high crime areas. What happened to the hippies is graphically revealed by the Haight-Asbury Research Project, which followed for four years the lives of 250 of the first drop outs in that section.

Mostly from upper middle class families they rejected promising futures for a new order they believed they were creating. Now they are dejected, working at jobs below their potential, still rejecting "straight" society but also rejecting the hippie life they helped create.

They are still lonely, aimless outcasts — by their own choice, but without the advantages they rejected years ago. It is a pitiful story, but filled with lessons for other youths, if they will only take note.

Arab Business In Israeli

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
NABLUS, ISRAEL — Are the Arabs of the West Bank, whose territory has been under the control of the Israelis ever since the Six-Day War, merely playing possum, waiting for political delivery in a new round of Soviet-financed Egyptian-Syrian hostilities against Israel? Or, are they reconciled to being part of an Israel with permanent eastern boundaries at the Jordan River and on the Golan Heights above the Sea of Galilee?

It would take a mind reader with a specialist's knowledge of the Arabic tongue and ways of thinking to answer such questions, so I will not try. I'll just stick to the record of an interesting foray in the company of a young Israeli researcher with a cultural anthropologist's bent, Mr. Israel Stockman of the Shilock Institute for Middle Eastern Studies, who has been cultivating Arab friends in the conquered West Bank villages, municipalities and refugee camps for four years.

We set out from Jerusalem along the road to Nablus, past the birthplace of Sirhan Sirhan, the killer of Robert Kennedy. It was through fairly desolate territory, for the old Jordanian government in the West Bank, unlike the Israeli government in lands to the west of Jerusalem, had never followed a policy of planting pines and cedars on the old terraced hills. We stopped for Turkish coffee at a roadside restaurant below the olive trees that make the old hills productive of something, and there was a long, leisurely chat with two weather-worn Arabs who wore the white headdress known as the Kafiyeh, which is held in place by the akkal, a black band which is the badge of the older generation.

I couldn't understand a word, though it was all very amicable. Mr. Stockman explained to me that the country Arabs, in a world that has barely been introduced to electricity, don't know much about world politics; their concerns are local, and the Israelis haven't interfered with the administration of the West Bank villages, where 70 per cent of the Arab people live, or even with the few bigger municipalities.

I wanted to see a refugee camp, and Mr. Stockman took me to Balata, which is one still under UN supervision. It was incredibly cramped, stupidly so when you consider the empty hills that surround the villages; the toilets were all outside the huts and there was no running water. Yet there was prosperity within the camp, as the TV antennae proclaimed. Since the Six-Day War, the men in the camp have been going out to Israeli factories and farms by day, earning three to four times what they received before 1967. It is merely Israeli propaganda to observe that the Jordanians maintained the camp originally as a political gambit to keep a sense of grievance alive in displaced Palestinian Arabs? Surely, with the unused land that was available, there was room to spread the refugees around.

We went into Nablus (pop. 45,000), the biggest town on the West Bank, for a morning snack of sweets concocted of honey, sheep milk cheese, ground grain and pistachio nuts. The owner of the sweet shop has been doing well during the post-1967 boom; he owns the only Jaguar in Nablus. Down the street we visited an Arab soap factory run by brothers in a big family that once boasted a prime minister of Jordan. I talked with one of the brothers who had once been a consul in New York; he asked me how the Shakespearean theatre in Stratford, Conn., was getting on. Again it was all very amicable. The factory imports olive oil from Spain and turns it into soap that is trucked through Jordan for sale in Kuwait. The Israelis don't interfere with the trade. I asked Mr. Stockman about the political feelings of the brothers. He said, "You see them sitting at the door of their business; they are taking a siesta."

When we moved out to a village for lunch with an Arab family, there was no siesta feeling of subdued waiting. The lunch was incredibly lavish; one was expected to eat a whole chicken along with good Arabian bread smothered in onions and herbs, using fingers in place of forks. I followed the conversation in translation; the two Arabs who were being so hospitable to an Israeli and his American friend own two taxis and a truck as well as the family olive trees, and they want very much to get a third taxi license, which demands some 60,000 Israeli pounds and some political influence. They also want to acquire a cement factory. The post-1967 economic boom on the West Bank has made for business co-existence between Arab and Jew; you could hardly call the two Arab taxicab capitalists collaborators, for they were intensely interested in improving themselves, not in ingratiating themselves with Israelis just for the sake of a smile.

Maybe, if the Soviets allow a new Egyptian move against Israel, Mr. Stockman would find his Arab friends less hospitable. But, for what it is worth, one Israeli researcher has had no difficulty during the present cease-fire in pursuing his cultural and anthropological investigations on the West Bank. The presumption is that if the Russians would get out of Egypt, a business co-existence might be followed by permanent peace between the Israelis and the Arabs.

A DETERMINED young lady charged into a jewelry shop, planted a diamond ring on the counter and began giving the clerk a piece of her mind. The boss, overhearing the fracas, called out from the rear of the shop, "What does the young lady want?" The clerk called back, "She wants his money back."

There are so many trade journals in the United States, it's difficult even for those whose business it is editing magazines to keep track of them all. Every industry has its own periodical — and the very names of some of them are enough to give a non-subscriber pause. A few examples: Casket and Sunnyside (for the undertaking and embalming set), Chain Saw Age, Water Well Journal, Peanut Journal and Nut World, Broom and Broom Corn News, and Turf Grass Time. Some sport-sport at the old Corset and Underwear Review, however, decided not long ago to keep up with the times and changed the name to Body Fashions.

Peter De Vries, whose new novel, "Mrs. Wallop," is a delight, believes that hymns to beauty can be based, of all things, on college cheers, and gives this example to prove his point: "Flowers, flowers, rah rah rah! You've smelled 'em with your noses So let's hear it for the roses, Roses, roses, sis boom bah!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Our first child was born two months ago. It was found that one of his testicles had not descended properly.

How does this strange thing happen? Is an operation the only way to correct it?

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Utah Dear Mr. and Mrs. S.: The miracle of embryo development defies imagination. Even sophisticated scientists wonder that any child can be born free of abnormality.

As the embryo develops the testicles descend slowly into the scrotal sac from a position high in the abdomen near the kidneys.

Sometimes one or both of the testes fail to make the descent properly. The condition is known as "cryptorchidism."

In some instances, the testicle may not descend into the sac until a year or two after birth. Doctors keep such children under close observation and often are able to encourage the descent with hormone injections.

When that method is unsuccessful, surgery during childhood is advised. Many excellent techniques have been created for successful results.

If the child is old enough, it would be important to explain thoroughly the problem to him so he has no psychological problems associated with a feeling of embarrassment.

Children at a very early age have remarkable comprehension for which they are not always given credit. It is surprising how often a child of 5 years can be made to understand that a problem exists and that every effort is being made to set it right.

After a bone in the arm or leg is fractured and heals, is it as strong as it ever was before?

We have been pampering our 11-year-old son and are keeping him out of sports for almost two years because of our fear of another fracture in the same spot.

Mrs. V. C. N., Fla. Dear Mrs. N.: When bones heal after a fracture they are as firm and as strong as they were before the injury.

It must be remembered that there is marked thinning or atrophy of the muscles, especially when a limb is kept in a cast for a long period of time. These muscles must be encouraged to develop their strength once again — so that they, too, can return to normal. A slow return to regulated exercise helps this. There is no reason why your son should be deprived of all the benefits of sports because of your unnecessary anxiety.

Do not force brandy down the throat of a person who has fainted or is unconscious.

Man Held In Shooting Of Women

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A preliminary hearing has been scheduled in municipal court Thursday morning for a Springfield man accused of shooting two women employees of City Loan Co.

Judge Richard Cole set the hearing date after James Cecil Byrd, 30, failed to enter a plea Tuesday to two counts of shooting with intent to kill and one of armed robbery.

Cole set bond at $105,000. Joy Crinkey, 24, and Barbara Perry, 26, were found in the loan company office Monday with wounds in the back of their heads.

Byrd, on parole after serving 10 years at the Mansfield Reformatory on an armed robbery conviction, was arrested early Tuesday.

Police said Byrd had unsuccessfully attempted to get a $250 loan from the company last week.

No cash was taken from the loan office, because none was kept there at night. The armed robbery charge stems from the theft of Mrs. Perry's purse.

1972 Cars Shun Styling, Push Engineering

By STEPHEN H. WILDSTOM
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — New 1972 cars are operating on the nation's roadways but it's tougher than ever to tell the new ones from last year's models.

For General Motors, it's the year of the bumper. And all the manufacturers have installed better exhaust systems to cut pollution.

But on the outside much is the same.

Styling changes have been held to a minimum while the companies focused their money and manpower on meeting safety and antipollution regulations.

Continuing a trend of previous years, there are fewer models, down to 327 from 389 in the '71 model year.

Many of the discontinued lines are intermediate-size performance cars, whose sales have dropped sharply in recent years, following criticism from insurance companies and government safety officials.

Only 17 convertible models are being offered, down from 23 last year. Automakers say the decline in convertibles is due mainly to the popularity of air conditioning and vinyl roofs plus concern about the safety of soft tops.

Convertibles have been replaced by sliding sun roofs, added as options on several car lines this year.

There are some newly designed cars, all of them by the Ford Motor Co. Most prominent are the No. 2 automaker's twin intermediates, the Ford Torino and Mercury Montego.

The two cars, which share many body, chassis and engine components, have received new, more rounded bodies and large new grilles. But the big change in both cars is below the skin. Ford is building them with a body and separate frame rather than the unitized body-frame used in recent years.

Ford says the new technique will make the cars quieter and more rigid, producing a more solid ride.

Styling of General Motors, Chrysler and American Motors products and the most of the remainder of the Ford line is essentially unchanged from 1971.

On the inside, all cars have improved exhaust emission control systems to meet more stringent federal and California standards which went into effect for 1972 cars.

There are no new safety requirements taking effect this fall, but General Motors has put improved bumpers on all their fullsize '72 models.

All the big GM cars will be able to hit a rigid barrier at 2½ miles an hour with their front bumper without damage to the car. That's about twice the impact current bumpers can stand but only half of what will be required on 1973 cars.

The bumpers stick out from the body about one inch further than old bumpers to allow energy-absorbing movement.

Although car prices are, for the moment, frozen at 1971 levels, the new bumpers effectively add $23 to the price of the cars equipped with them. The reason is a protective rubber strip running across the face of the bumpers which is a $23 option on full-size Chevrolets, Oldsmobiles, Pontiacs, Buicks and Cadillacs. Although the part is optional, GM officials have said they expect the rubber strips to be included on virtually every car sold.

For American Motors, the biggest change is not in the cars at all but in the warranty.

For 1972, American is promising new car buyers a "trouble free," one-year, 12,000 mile warranty. The guarantee covers everything on the cars but tires, which are covered separately by their manufacturer. Previously, many items, such as clutches and brakes, were excluded from warranty coverage.

If the buyer of an AMC car has to bring his car into the shop for warranty service that will take more than a day, AMC promises him the use of a car while his is being worked on.

The Big Three automakers all are sticking with traditional 12-month, 12,000-mile warranties with the usual exclusions.

Navy Presses Missile Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has decided to push ahead with an advanced submarine missile system, leaving out of its immediate plans a less expensive improvement of the present Poseidon-Polaris weapon.

Pentagon sources say the Navy once again is asking funds for further development of a 6,000-mile-range missile which would operate from an entirely new class of submarine.

This system, with twice the range of the present Poseidon-Polaris missiles, would cost an estimated $12 billion to $15 billion. It is known as ULMS, which stands for undersea-launched missile system.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A strange day and evening when at one moment you have opportunities and the next you find difficulties confronting you. It is certainly best that you maintain a cheerful and a charming disposition if you are to avoid the pitfalls and make headway in dealing with others. Keep above reproach.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) The social is fine but make sure you do not spend extravagantly. Help a friend out who is in trouble. Obtain good ideas from pals while having fun. Try not to criticize others.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have much power today and can do well in business and career matters. Pay important bills. Have a good credit rating and get ahead faster. Show that you have wisdom.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Start new activities that give you a chance to use capabilities seldom utilized. You can add much to present income thereby. The information you have can come in handy. Be alert.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Finances should be taken care of right away, so do just that. Use a more modern system than in the past. Get the cooperation of mate, also. Show that you are wise.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You are impatient and could get into trouble with an erratic acting associate, so take it easy and tomorrow all changes for the better. Use your magnetism with others and keep all under control.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have many duties, so be inventive in handling them and you find they are soon behind you. Some co-workers are not cooperative, a smile will soon change things around. Be calm.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You can handle any problem today with ease and then have time to have fun with others. Please the one you like and stop wearing yourself out with the unworthy. Engage in a new hobby.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A little gift can ease a troubled situation. Then make sure you eliminate the source which is causing the main trouble. Be sure to pay bills instead of spending money foolishly.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Take a little trip that will bring in the benefits you want and make you feel happier now. Taking risks where an associate is concerned would be most unwise. Shop with utmost care.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Obtain the articles you need to make your abode more charming and as you want it to be. Also buy items which makes you feel happier. However, stop buying mere luxuries.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Take time out from work to see persons who like you and vice versa. Show your devotion. Get away from tension that is bothering you. Avoid a group affair that could be boring.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You feel others are imposing on you. It is because you are not scheduling your time wisely. Smile more and you need not work so hard. Ask a charming friend to help you with a problem.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those ambitious young people who wants to put ideas across with such speed that the idealism behind them is apt to be neglected. Teach early to have consideration for the ideas of others before plunging into them, or your youngster could hurt others and eventually hurt self as well. Give good ethical training early in life and chores to do about the house.

Josef Cardinal Mindszenty Freed; Flies To Vatican

ROME (AP) — Free at last, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty flew into Rome Tuesday—back to the warm embrace of the Church whose tenets he upheld through years of tribulation.

The Roman Catholic primate of Hungary had spent the last 15 years in asylum at the U.S. diplomatic mission in Budapest. He left there today, was driven to Vienna, and came on to Rome by plane.

The Hungarian government announced he was gone "for good."

A statement from the Vatican said Pope Paul VI, moved by the increasingly difficult conditions under which the 79-year-old cardinal lived, had asked him to accept an "honorable solution" of his dispute with the Hungarian Communists.

The statement quoted Cardinal Mindszenty as saying the agreement was "perhaps the heaviest cross of my life," but that he was ready to lead "a life of prayer and penitence" in exile.

The agreement closed a chapter in the most famous and prolonged dispute between the church and a Communist country.

The Hungarian regime sentenced the cardinal to life imprisonment on charges of treason tracing to his opposition to the Communists' takeover at Budapest after World War II. He was freed briefly at the time of the Hungarian uprising in 1956, and fled for safety to the U.S. mission as Soviet tanks subdued the rebellion.

House Panel Shuns Nader, OKs Consumer Agency Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Ralph Nader pacing the corridor and fretting about the labor of his congressional supporters, a House committee has delivered—without a change—its own bill to create a consumer protection agency.

When the doors of the House Government Operations Committee room were opened Monday after a day-long private panel session full of setbacks for consumer advocate Nader, Chairman Chet Holifield, D-Calif., announced the legislation was approved 24 to 4 with three members voting "present."

"This is out of Kafka," Nader said as he battled unsuccessfully, despite Democratic majorities on all the amendments he backed, for changes he contended are vital to developing an effective agency within the government to work for the interests of consumers.

Among those voting against the bill was one of its original authors, Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., who charged the committee's rewriting had weakened the legislation. Two proposed amendments lost on tie votes—and a series of Rosenthal's pro-Nader proposals failed, the key one by 20 to 14. This one would have allowed the agency to enter early phases of cases handled by other agencies.

Nader told reporters the committee-approved bill "deals with the tip of the consumer-abuse iceberg—only 10 per cent of anything that matters. Since Holifield has become a de facto member of the Republican party, there's a good chance it will be overturned on the floor."

But Holifield said the bill "will not satisfy Ralph Nader or the U.S. Chamber of Commerce but, if enacted into law, it will do a job for the American consumer. I regard this bill as landmark legislation. With its enactment, a new era will commence in consumer protection."

Man Held In Shooting Of Women

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A preliminary hearing has been scheduled in municipal court Thursday morning for a Springfield man accused of shooting two women employees of City Loan Co.

Judge Richard Cole set the hearing date after James Cecil Byrd, 30, failed to enter a plea Tuesday to two counts of shooting with intent to kill and one of armed robbery.

Cole set bond at $105,000. Joy Crinke, 24, and Barbara Perry, 26, were found in the loan company office Monday with wounds in the back of their heads.

Wallace Higgins Addresses DAR On 'The Constitution'

Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its September meeting recently at Pickaway County Historical Society Museum. Regent, Mrs. Joseph Peters presided.

The meeting was opened in ritualistic form with Mrs. R. R. Bales assisting Mrs. Peters. The Pledge to the Flag of the United States of America was followed by members reading in unison the American's Creed.

The President General's message was read by Miss Jane Watt. It was reported that graves were marked on June 30th. Mrs. Charles Beckman read the budget for 1971-72.

Mrs. Peters announced that the November meeting date was changed to the 9th at Hedges Chapel beginning 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Judd Dresbach, defense chairman, presented a talk on defense. A recent visitor to Russia, Mrs. Dresbach has grave misgivings concerning the relationship between their country and the United States. She said that Russia seems big, strong and its young people well indoctrinated with the Communist theories. Mrs. Dresbach questions the wisdom of recognizing China.

Mrs. Henry Bartholomew, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Wallace Higgins, a Circleville High School history teacher, whose subject was "The Constitution."

The constitution of the United States of America is in many ways a unique document. "Every word of it" wrote James Madison, "decides a question between power and liberty." Thomas Jefferson called it "the result of the collected wisdom of our country."

Yet when the delegates met at the State House in Philadelphia in May 1787 few if any of them realized that they were going to produce a document of such enduring quality. In fact, many of them were quite pessimistic.

Still, some of the best talent in America was represented in the assembly and most of the delegates agreed in general on what they wanted. They wanted to construct a political framework which would provide a government with power but one which would not exercise that power tyrannically.

The men who shaped the Constitution had differing political views and only few of them were really supporters of democracy.

Since history taught him that humanity was nearly always its own enemy and that governments in the past had usually ended in tyranny Madison visualized the creation of a new type of government that would not have the power or temptation to tyrannize over the citizens. This required careful and delicate safeguards that would be built into the government structure and become an integral part of it. Madison summed up his ideal beautifully in this sentence, "In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the greatest difficulty lies in this! You must first enable the government to control the governed and in the next place oblige it to control itself." This is the underlying philosophy of the American Constitution and it was probably Madison's greatest single achievement as a statesman.

Many, including Washington, saw as one of the document's strong points the fact that if there were things that proved to be necessary that were absent or unnecessary things that were present, the Constitution contained a systematic procedure for self correction. It is significant that shortly after the new Congress met in 1788 Madison and others set the machinery in motion to amend the Constitution by providing for a Bill of Rights. This ultimately resulted in the adoption of the first 10 amendments and helped to pacify some of the critics of the new system.

Perhaps the most significant, the founding fathers had no illusions about the Constitution being perfect, so they included in the fabric of the document a system for altering it if and when alterations seemed advisable. And yet, the document was so well thought out that its original substance plus all of the Amendments down to the most recent one on the 18 year old vote, can be easily contained in a 20 page pamphlet. The men who shaped out the Constitution, James Madison, Governor Morris, George Washington, Alexander Hamilton and Benjamin Franklin, planned better than they could have dreamed.

William Gladstone, the great English statesman of the 19th century, called our Constitution "the most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man."

Dr. Padover sums it up this way "The American Constitution has turned out to be perhaps the most successful example in history of a legal document that has served both as a safeguard of individual freedom and as ligament of national unity." In duration, flexibility and underlying democratic wisdom there is nothing quite like it anywhere else in the world.

It is well that we should pause at this time of the year to give thanks for our good fortune in having had among our predecessors men like Madison, Washington and Franklin who could evaluate man's strength and weakness and could fashion a system of government which could make the best uses of that strength and avoid the worst influences of that weakness Mr. Higgins concluded.

When sheets begin to wear, whip up extra pillow slips or sheets for a youth bed or crib from the sections that are not worn.

Miss Bonnie Moffitt Weds Mr. William G. Brock

Community United Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Bonnie Moffitt and Mr. William Brock. The Rev. Paul Wachs performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moffitt, 404 E. Mound St. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brock, 530 Ridgewood Drive 2:30 p.m. Aug. 14th.

Organist, Miss Donna Berry, presented a program of music preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She silk organza, peau d'ange lace silk organza peau d'ange lace with contrasting blue velvet ribbon drawn through enhanced the bodice, creating a bib effect, trimmed the high cuff neckline and wide cuffs on the bishop sleeves. The full skirt with attached train flowed into chapel length. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and blue pompon mums and wore white roses in her hair.

Maid of honor, Miss Fran Plum, was attired in a floor length peasant gown of multi-printed Surah, designed with an empire bodice with eyelet lacing, scoop neckline and ivory chiffon bishop sleeves. Her bouquet was of pink, yellow and green pompon mums with matching flowers in her hair.

Mr. Robert Adkins II performed the duties of best man and Gary Brock, brother of the groom, seated the guests.

Mrs. Moffitt wore an A-line Aztec woven design dress of beige over cocoa with a macrame belt and a blue and white carnation corsage. Mrs. Brock selected a pink and white jaquard textured knit dress with an empire waistline, white accessories and pink and white carnation corsage.

A reception in the home of the bride's parents immediately followed the ceremony. The buffet table held a yellow and white pompon centerpiece flanked by silver candle holders with blue candles. The three tiered blue and white decorated cake was also flanked with silver candleholders with blue candles.

Hard Cash For School Work Urged

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati public school system is seeking a federal grant to provide cash rewards for pupils who improve their grades the most in certain subjects.

Teachers of those pupils would also be given cash rewards, said James Jacobs, who is director of program research and design for the Cincinnati Board of Education.

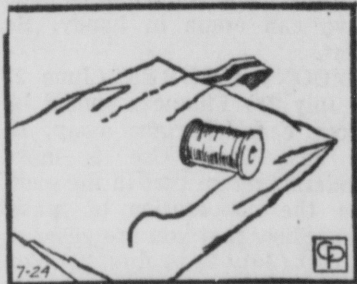

He said Tuesday that school officials are preparing a contract with the U. S. Office of Education, and it could be finalized at the next board of education meeting Oct. 11.

He said that if the program is approved, the school district would receive about $150,000 to $175,000.

The program would be implemented immediately in one elementary school, but he would not disclose which.

Jacobs said the idea of the program is that both teachers and parents will work harder with the pupils if there are cash rewards available. Pay won by the pupils would be given their parents.

SALE PRICING — Members of Altar-Rosary Society of St. Joseph Catholic Church are busy preparing for a rummage sale to be held from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday and Friday and 9 a.m. until noon Saturday in the church basement. Shown from the left pricing some of the items are Mrs. Terry Sloan, Mrs. Don Stage and Mrs. Harold Nagel.

SAND CANDLE — Mrs. Marcus Lackey is shown displaying a sand candle she made during a workshop of Gardenwood Club at her home.

Garden Club Program Is 'Sand Candles'

Gardenwood Club held its September meeting at the home of Mrs. Marcus Lackey, 381 Meadow Lane. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Ronald Lundberg and Mrs. William Fischer.

Mrs. Lackey presented a demonstration on how to make sand candles. An auction was held for candles she had made for demonstration of the different types before the meeting.

Mrs. Howard Davies, president, presided over the business meeting. Members answered roll call by naming the flower of their birth month.

Discussion concerned decorating a downtown window for Pumpkin Show and a location to sell Pumpkin Show items. Mrs. Davies announced there would be a workshop beginning 9 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 29th at the home of Mrs. Robert Scherer.

Horticulture chairman, Mrs. Ronald Spence, demonstrated how to start mums from cuttings, root tone and sand.

New members joining the club were Mrs. Tom Downing, and Mrs. Ronald Kazmierczak. A guest for the evening was Mrs. Larry Stemm.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Sarchet, 581 Mapleview Lane.

Reception To Honor Marie L. Hamilton

Circleville Chapter 90 Order of the Eastern Star will hold a reception honoring Marie L. Hamilton for her appointment as chairman of registration of the General Grand Chapter of Ohio OES. The event will be from 2:30 until 5 p.m. Saturday in the Masonic Temple.

Wallace Higgins Addresses DAR On 'The Constitution'

Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its September meeting recently at Pickaway County Historical Society Museum. Regent, Mrs. Joseph Peters presided.

The meeting was opened in ritualistic form with Mrs. R. R. Bales assisting Mrs. Peters. The Pledge to the Flag of the United States of America was followed by members reading in unison the American's Creed.

The President General's message was read by Miss Jane Watt. It was reported that graves were marked on June 30th. Mrs. Charles Beckman read the budget for 1971-72.

Mrs. Peters announced that the November meeting date was changed to the 9th at Hedges Chapel beginning 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Judd Dresbach, defense chairman, presented a talk on defense. A recent visitor to Russia, Mrs. Dresbach has grave misgivings concerning the relationship between their country and the United States. She said that Russia seems big, strong and its young people well indoctrinated with the Communist theories. Mrs. Dresbach questions the wisdom of recognizing China.

Mrs. Henry Bartholomew, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Wallace Higgins, a Circleville High School history teacher, whose subject was "The Constitution."

The constitution of the United States of America is in many ways a unique document. "Every word of it" wrote James Madison, "decides a question between power and liberty." Thomas Jefferson called it "the result of the collected wisdom of our country."

Yet when the delegates met at the State House in Philadelphia in May 1787 few if any of them realized that they were going to produce a document of such enduring quality. In fact, many of them were quite pessimistic.

Still, some of the best talent in the assembly and most of the delegates agreed in general on what they wanted. They wanted to construct a political framework which would provide a government with power but one which would not exercise that power tyrannically.

The men who shaped the Constitution had differing political views and only few of them were really supporters of democracy.

Since history taught him that humanity was nearly always its own enemy and that governments in the past had usually ended in tyranny Madison visualized the creation of a new type of government that would not have the power or temptation to tyrannize over the citizens. This required careful and delicate safeguards that would be built into the government structure and become an integral part of it. Madison summed up his ideal beautifully in this sentence, "In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the greatest difficulty lies in this! You must first enable the government to control the governed and in the next place oblige it to control itself." This is the underlying philosophy of the American Constitution and it was probably Madison's greatest single achievement as a statesman.

Many, including Washington, saw as one of the document's strong points the fact that if there were things that proved to be necessary that were absent or unnecessary things that were present, the Constitution contained a systematic procedure for self correction. It is significant that shortly after the new Congress met in 1788 Madison and others set the machinery in motion to amend the Constitution by providing for a Bill of Rights. This ultimately resulted in the adoption of the first 10 amendments and helped to pacify some of the critics of the new system.

Perhaps the most significant, the founding fathers had no illusions about the Constitution being perfect, so they included in the fabric of the document a system for altering it if and when alterations seemed advisable. And yet, the document was so well thought out that its original substance plus all of the Amendments down to the most recent one on the 18 year old vote, can be easily contained in a 20 page pamphlet. The men who shaped out the Constitution, James Madison, Governor Morris, George Washington, Alexander Hamilton and Benjamin Franklin, planned better than they could have dreamed.

William Gladstone, the great English statesman of the 19th century, called our Constitution "the most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man."

Dr. Padover sums it up this way "The American Constitution has turned out to be perhaps the most successful example in history of a legal document that has served both as a safeguard of individual freedom and as a ligament of national unity."

In duration, flexibility and underlying democratic wisdom there is nothing quite like it anywhere else in the world.

It is well that we should pause at this time of the year to give thanks for our good fortune in having had among our predecessors men like Madison, Washington and Franklin who could evaluate man's strength and weakness and could fashion a system of government which could make the best use of that strength and avoid the worst influences of that weakness Mr. Higgins concluded.

When sheets begin to wear, whip up extra pillow slips or sheets for a youth bed or crib from the sections that are not worn.

Carney, Perk Nominated For Mayor

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Democrat James Carney and Republican Ralph Perk won their party nominations in the Cleveland mayoral primary Tuesday. But they face a bitter fight Nov. 2 with Independent Arnold Pinkney who seeks to become the second black to fill the city's top job.

Carney, 59, an attorney and real estate developer, scored an upset victory over City Council President Anthony Garofoli, with the unofficial count giving him an edge of nearly 14,000 votes.

Perk, 57, Cuyahoga County auditor, beat State Rep. George Voinovich by a two-to-one vote in the Republican primary. The complete unofficial tabulation in the city's 632 precincts gave Carney 74,031 votes to 60,141 for Garofoli. Former Police Chief Patrick Gerity received 6,149.

Perk received 12,156 vote to 6,014 for Voinovich.

American Sells Hamburgers, Milkshakes To Brazilians

By BRUCE HANDLER
Associated Press Writer

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Twenty-five years ago, Bob Falkenburg of Los Angeles came to Brazil for a tennis tournament and was distressed to find he couldn't get a decent hamburger or milkshake. Today, as the owner of a snack bar chain, he is the biggest hamburger and milkshake man in the country.

"When I first got here I looked around and said: 'Man, they really could use a good quick lunch place in this town,'" Falkenburg, 45, said. "In those days, the concept didn't even exist here. People in Rio used to go home for lunch or eat big meals in restaurants. It took two or three hours."

"But now Brazil has adapted, more or less, to the international working day. A businessman who really has work to do doesn't want to waste a lot of time at lunch. He can eat here in 10 or 15 minutes."

A former Wimbledon champion (doubles 1947, singles

1948), Falkenburg returned to Brazil in 1951 to stay. He later married a Brazilian woman. Now he runs 10 Bob's outlets in Rio and supplies them from a factory that makes hamburgers, ice cream, strawberry topping and other traditional American goodies.

Falkenburg taught himself Portuguese, Brazil's national language, and then began plowing through the bureaucracy that had to be overcome before he could go into business. Once he gave a tennis racket to the secretary of a health official to help get his food license petition moved closer to the top of the pile of papers on her boss' desk.

"Actually, the bureaucracy helped me," Falkenburg said. "For example, one rule said you couldn't import ice cream mix. Another regulation wouldn't let you bring in cups. I wound up learning the whole business from scratch."

Falkenburg is thinking about setting up restaurants in other Brazilian cities. In the meantime, Brazilian competitors have been copying the Bob's formula, opening U.S.-style lunch counters of their own.

Partisan Mayor Elections End For Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Fourteen years of partisan mayoral elections come to an end this November in Cleveland because of voter approval Tuesday of a charter amendment changing to nonpartisan elections.

Complete, unofficial returns showed 73,015 votes for a nonpartisan election and 52,295 against — a 58 per cent majority.

After November when Democrat James Carney, Republican Ralph Perk and independents Arnold Pinkney and Joseph Pirincin square off, Cleveland voters in future years will have just two candidates in the general election.

Under terms of the charter amendment, all candidates will run in the primary, with the top two vote-getters meeting in a runoff election in November.

Cincinnati Face Charges In Slaying

CINCINNATI (AP)—First-degree manslaughter charges have been lodged against two Cincinnati men in the shotgun slaying of a 23-year-old Queen City man during a shootout.

Percy Stone, 25, and Arthur Kirksey, 17, were arrested Tuesday in the death of Gregory Underwood. Kirksey, who was charged as a juvenile, was treated at an area hospital for a bullet wound.

Troop 343 Holds Fall Honor Court

Troop 343 of Five Points held its fall Court of Honor at Camp Rivers. A covered dish supper was provided by the mothers of the scouts and approximately 58 people were in attendance. The evening's festivities were started with campfire skits given by each of the three patrols and was followed by singing and the presentation of awards.

The highlight of the evening was the awarding of Eagle Scout Rank to Jimmy Akison and Wyatt Fraas. These are the first Eagle Scouts to be awarded since the Troop's formation. The Monroe Community Mens Club, who are the sponsors of the troop, will recognize both scouts at their next regular meeting.

Other Boy Scouts receiving awards were: Bruce Morgan-Life Scout; Roger Finch-First Class Scout; and the following Boy Scouts received their Second Class awards, Ted Everman, Rodney Conley, Dennis Finch, Sammy Hart, George Kern, Jr. and Willie Robertson. Chuck Bower received the rank and badge of Tenderfoot Scout.

A total of thirty-four Merit Badges were earned by eight scouts. There were also eight 50-mile hike awards made. Jimmy Akison and Wyatt Fraas received certificates and patches for Scout Lifeguard, these were earned at summer camp in July. Doug Fraas was also selected to serve as a troop officer. He will assume the responsibilities as Troop Librarian. Service Star pins from 1 to 5 years were also awarded to the troop.

Jim Akison, Sr., Scoutmaster, and H. W. (Doc) Fraas, Assistant Scoutmaster, were awarded wall plaques for service to the community. The awards were made by Dick Everman, Troop Committee Chairman. Mr. Everman also praised all the Boy Scouts of Troop 343 for their good work in scouting and their contributions to the community as good young citizens. The Court of Honor was brought to a conclusion by the singing of "Taps".

"But now Brazil has adapted, more or less, to the international working day. A businessman who really has work to do doesn't want to waste a lot of time at lunch. He can eat here in 10 or 15 minutes."

A former Wimbledon champion (doubles 1947, singles

1948), Falkenburg returned to Brazil in 1951 to stay. He later married a Brazilian woman. Now he runs 10 Bob's outlets in Rio and supplies them from a factory that makes hamburgers, ice cream, strawberry topping and other traditional American goodies.

Falkenburg taught himself Portuguese, Brazil's national language, and then began plowing through the bureaucracy that had to be overcome before he could go into business. Once he gave a tennis racket to the secretary of a health official to help get his food license petition moved closer to the top of the pile of papers on her boss' desk.

"Actually, the bureaucracy helped me," Falkenburg said. "For example, one rule said you couldn't import ice cream mix. Another regulation wouldn't let you bring in cups. I wound up learning the whole business from scratch."

Falkenburg is thinking about setting up restaurants in other Brazilian cities. In the meantime, Brazilian competitors have been copying the Bob's formula, opening U.S.-style lunch counters of their own.

Partisan Mayor Elections End For Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Fourteen years of partisan mayoral elections came to an end this November in Cleveland because of voter approval Tuesday of a charter amendment changing to nonpartisan elections.

Complete, unofficial returns showed 73,015 votes for a nonpartisan election and 52,295 against — a 58 per cent majority.

After November when Democrat James Carney, Republican Ralph Perk and independents Arnold Pinkney and Joseph Pirincin square off, Cleveland voters in future years will have just two candidates in the general election.

Under terms of the charter amendment, all candidates will run in the primary, with the top two vote-getters meeting in a runoff election in November.

Cincinnati's Face Charges In Slaying

CINCINNATI (AP)—First-degree manslaughter charges have been lodged against two Cincinnatians in the shotgun slaying of a 23-year-old Queen City man during a shootout.

Percy Stone, 25, and Arthur Kirksey, 17, were arrested Tuesday in the death of Gregory Underwood, Kirksey, who was charged as a juvenile, was treated at an area hospital for a bullet wound.

Troop 343 Holds Fall Honor Court

Troop 343 of Five Points held its fall Court of Honor at Camp Rivers. A covered dish supper was provided by the mothers of the scouts and approximately 58 people were in attendance. The evening's festivities were started with campfire skits given by each of the three patrols and was followed by singing and the presentation of awards.

The highlight of the evening was the awarding of Eagle Scout Rank to Jimmy Akison and Wyatt Fraas. These are the first Eagle Scouts to be awarded since the Troop's formation. The Monroe Community Mens Club, who are the sponsors of the troop, will recognize both scouts at their next regular meeting.

Other Boy Scouts receiving awards were: Bruce Morgan-Life Scout; Roger Finch-First Class Scout; and the following Boy Scouts received their Second Class awards, Ted Everman, Rodney Conley, Dennis Finch, Sammy Hart, George Kern, Jr. and Willie Robertson. Chuck Bower received the rank and badge of Tenderfoot Scout.

A total of thirty-four Merit Badges were earned by eight scouts. There were also eight 50-mile Hike awards made. Jimmy Akison and Wyatt Fraas received certificates and patches for Scout Lifeguard, these were earned at summer camp in July. Doug Fraas was also selected to serve as a troop officer. He will assume the responsibilities as Troop Librarian. Service Star pins from 1 to 5 years were also awarded to the troop.

Jim Akison, Sr., Scoutmaster, and H. W. (Doc) Fraas, Assistant Scoutmaster, were awarded wall plaques for service to the community. The awards were made by Dick Everman, Troop Committee Chairman. Mr. Everman also praised all the Boy Scouts of Troop 343 for their good work in scouting and their contributions to the community as good young citizens. The Court of Honor was brought to a conclusion by the singing of "Taps".

AUTUMN PORK LOIN SALE!!

LOIN HALF PORK LOIN ROAST

CENTER CUT PORK LOIN ROAST

QUARTER LOIN SLICED TENDERLOIN END

PORK CHOPS RIB END CUTS

BETTY BROWN'S 'HOMEMAKER HINT' PORK PLATTER ORANGE'

6 Pork Chops, 1 inch thick
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 onion, cut into 6 slices
1/3 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/2 cup water
1 tsp. grated orange peel
1/3 cup orange juice
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. salt
2 lbs. sweet potatoes or yams, pared and cut into 1/2 in slices
6 thin orange slices
1 tbsps. cornstarch
1/4 cup cold water

Trim excess fat from chops; lightly grease heavy skillet with fat from one chop. Brown chops slowly, sprinkling with 1 1/2 tps. salt and the pepper. Drain off any excess fat. Top each chop with an onion slice. Mix brown sugar, 1/2 cup water, the orange peel, orange juice, lemon juice and 1/2 tsp. salt. Pour over chops. Cover and simmer 30 minutes. Lift chops and arrange sweet potato slices in sauce. Replace chops; top each onion slice with an orange slice. Cover; simmer 45 minutes or until potatoes are tender and chops are done, no pink in center. Remove chops and sweet potatoes to a heated platter; keep warm. Blend cornstarch and 1/4 cup water; stir into sauce in skillet. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Boil and stir one minute. Pour over chops and sweet potatoes. Garnish with parsley, if desired. 6 servings.

BETTY BROWN'S HOMEMAKER HINT

PORK PLATTER ORANGE'

|------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 6 Pork Chops, 1 inch thick   | 1/3 cup orange juice             |
| 1 1/2 tsp. salt              | 2 tblsp. lemon juice             |
| 1/4 tsp. pepper              | 1/2 tsp. salt                    |
| 1 onion, cut into 6 slices   | 2 lbs. sweet potatoes or yams,   |
| 1/3 cup brown sugar (packed) | pared and cut into 1/2 in slices |
| 1/2 cup water                | 6 thin orange slices             |
| 1 tsp. grated orange peel    | 1 tblsp. cornstarch              |
|                              | 1/4 cup cold water               |

Trim excess fat from chops; lightly grease heavy skillet with fat from one chop. Brown chops slowly, sprinkling with 1 1/2 tpsps. salt and the pepper. Drain off any excess fat. Top each chop with an onion slice. Mix brown sugar, 1/2 cup water, the orange peel, orange juice, lemon juice and 1/2 tsp. salt. Pour over chops. Cover and simmer 30 minutes. Lift chops and arrange sweet potato slices in sauce. Replace chops; top each onion slice with an orange slice. Cover; simmer 45 minutes or until potatoes are tender and chops are done, no pink in center. Remove chops and sweet potatoes to a heated platter; keep warm. Blend cornstarch and 1/4 cup water; stir into sauce in skillet. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Boil and stir one minute. Pour over chops and sweet potatoes. Garnish with parsley, if desired. 6 servings.

More School Problems Reported

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Auditor Joseph Ferguson said Tuesday that Northwest Local School District in Hamilton County would have to close about Nov. 19 unless it receives additional funding.

Ferguson, making a preliminary audit, said the district would have sufficient money only to maintain buildings and pay administration costs after that date.

An interim state budget expected to be voted on later today, allows financially troubled school districts to draw advances on state foundation money if they have a levy on the ballot by Nov. 10.

Ferguson said two other school districts, both of them in House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess' representative district, appear also to be in financial trouble.

He listed them as Bowling Green Local School District and Otsego Local School District, both in Wood County. Kurfess, a Republican, is from Perryburg.

Ferguson said Bowling Green would exhaust its operating capital about Oct. 1, while Otsego would run out of money around Oct. 22.

Kurfess sponsored the amendment in the interim budget providing advance money for troubled school districts.

Birds Fall Dead From Flight; Cause Sought

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. (AP) — Birds continued to fall dead from the sky Monday as wildlife experts tried to figure out what killed hundreds of small birds late last week.

Reports from as far away as 50 miles up the Skeena River from this northern Pacific Coast city indicated that several larger birds—including eagles, owls and ravens—also had been killed. In Prince Rupert, most of the dead birds were warblers and thrushes.

Officials said it could be a week before the results of tests by federal and provincial labs on bodies are available.

Residents first noticed birds flying erratically, crashing into windows and dropping dead last Thursday.

Firms Support Dividend Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — All but 39 of the nation's largest corporations have promised the administration not to raise dividend rates during the 90-day wage-price-rent freeze, Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans said today.

He said he had sent letters to the 1,250 largest corporations asking them voluntarily not to raise dividend rates during the freeze and that 1,211 "unanimously have agreed not to increase their dividends."

Of the remainder, 31 have not yet replied and eight said they preferred not to comment. They are Bell International, International Food Services, Morton-Norwich Products, the Norfolk and Western Railroad, Leslie-Sey Industries, Leeds Inc., Botany Industries and Plessey Inc., Stans said.

Germ Warfare Pact Presented

GENEVA (AP) — The United States and Soviet Union presented a revised version Tuesday of their joint draft treaty to outlaw germ warfare. First indications were that it will receive overwhelming support at the U.N. General Assembly.

The draft provides for destruction of stockpiles of biological weapons and thus would be the first actual disarmament measure achieved by the Geneva conference since it opened in March 1962.

There was one minor setback when the nonaligned countries in the 25-nation conference decided against cosponsoring the draft. The sponsors are the 12 North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Warsaw Pact countries.

That's A Lot Of Nuts And Bolts

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 10 million steel nuts and bolts will help hold together the most powerful electric transmission line in the United States when it is completed next year.

The 1,150-mile line, suspended in part from 2,300 steel towers, will pass through Indiana, Ohio, Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Views On TV-Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Cops and criminals reign supreme on television on Tuesday nights. At one point this Tuesday, all three networks were showing suspense stories.

ABC's "Mod Squad," after three seasons, is beginning to show signs of fatigue. Even the three young principals look rather mature and the show's scripts definitely have lost that fine flush of youth.

This week's story was pegged on the drug traffic, now becoming a cliché. This time Pete—with little help from his undercover colleagues Linc and Julie—was on the trail of an addict who was a cop killer. The trap was baited with a girl who was an ex-addict and afraid of getting hooked again. Cameron Mitchell played the killer with so much scenery chewing that Michael Coles' Pete seemed even more silent and brooding than usual. As if to make up for the lack of a good story, the background of an amusement park provided color and interest.

A quick twist of the dial to CBS brought on "Hawaii Five-O," with square-jawed right-thinking Steve McGarrett was on the trail of a psychotic strangler. The killer put make-up on his five women victims so they looked like painted dolls—a bit macabre in color. There was a surprise twist at the end as McGarrett tracked down the madman and incidentally solved another killing at the same time.

The star of the series continues to be the lush background of Hawaii, since most of the shows are shot on location. They give the police action series a special excitement and individuality.

In spite of the vogue for law-and-order shows, the networks are still nervous about injecting too much fighting and gunplay. The result is a large assortment of off-beat bad guys. For the true whodunit or suspense fans, however, sick drug addicts and madmen make unsatisfactory villains. Perhaps they are a little too close to reality and thus are threatening figures. Uncomplicated heavies who seem to have fun blowing safes, hijacking cargo or stealing secret government documents are infinitely more relaxing to watch.

ABC will start a story on Oct. 19 on "Marcus Welby, M.D." and finish it Oct. 21 on "Owen Marshall, Counselor-at-Law." NBC had something of the same idea earlier this month, spreading one story between "Ironside" and "Sarge."

Franklin School Loan Is Sought

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Officials of the school system in nearby Franklin have decided to apply for a state education loan of about $280,000 to keep classes going until Nov. 1.

Martin Essex, state superintendent of public education said Tuesday a report by the state auditor's office indicates that the financially troubled school system was approved for closing last Friday.

The loan would be an advance on state foundation funds, and would require the school district to place levies on the ballot with sufficient funds to operate the school district the remainder of this year and the next calendar year.

Voters in the district have rejected the last three levies put on the ballot.

The voters will decide on a six-mill additional and 4.5-mill renewal levy in the November election.

The district has about 5,200 students.

Schedule Hearing In Pollution Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Environmental Protection Agency has scheduled an enforcement conference in Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 13 to curb pollution of the Ohio River from Toronto to Shadyside, Ohio.

EPA Administrator William French Smith said Tuesday pollution from industrial sources, and municipalities has adversely affected drinking water, fishing and recreation involving contact with the river water.

Water quality standards for phenols, cyanides and coliform bacteria are being violated, he said, and salmonella bacteria have been found.

Australia's native bear, the koala, is a marsupial. It lives in the gum trees.

Views On TV - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Cops and criminals reign supreme on television on Tuesday nights. At one point this Tuesday, all three networks were showing suspense stories.

ABC's "Mod Squad," after three seasons, is beginning to show signs of fatigue. Even the three young principals look rather mature and the show's scripts definitely have lost that fine flush of youth.

This week's story was pegged on the drug traffic, now becoming a cliché. This time Pete—with little help from his undercover colleagues Linc and Julie—was on the trail of an addict who was a cop killer. The trap was baited with a girl who was an ex-addict and afraid of getting hooked again. Cameron Mitchell played the killer with so much scenery chewing that Michael Coles' Pete seemed even more silent and brooding than usual. As if to make up for the lack of a good story, the background of an amusement park provided color and interest.

A quick twist of the dial to CBS brought on "Hawaii Five-O," with square-jawed right-thinking Steve McGarrett was on the trail of a psychotic strangler. The killer put make-up on his five women victims so they looked like painted dolls—a bit macabre in color. There was a surprise twist at the end as McGarrett tracked down the madman and incidentally solved another killing at the same time.

The star of the series continues to be the lush background of Hawaii, since most of the shows are shot on location. They give the police action series a special excitement and individuality.

In spite of the vogue for law-and-order shows, the networks are still nervous about injecting too much fighting and gunplay. The result is a large assortment of off-beat bad guys. For the true whodunit or suspense fans, however, sick drug addicts and madmen make unsatisfactory villains. Perhaps they are a little too close to reality and thus are threatening figures. Uncomplicated heavies who seem to have fun blowing safes, hijacking cargo or stealing secret government documents are infinitely more relaxing to watch.

ABC will start a story on Oct. 19 on "Marcus Welby, M.D." and finish it Oct. 21 on "Owen Marshall, Counselor-at-Law." NBC had something of the same idea earlier this month, spreading one story between "Ironside" and "Sarge."

Franklin School Loan Is Sought

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Officials of the school system in nearby Franklin have decided to apply for a state education loan of about $280,000 to keep classes going until Nov. 1.

Martin Essex, state superintendent of public education said Tuesday a report by the state auditor's office indicates that the financially troubled school system was approved for closing last Friday.

The loan would be an advance on state foundation funds, and would require the school district to place levies on the ballot with sufficient funds to operate the school district the remainder of this year and the next calendar year.

Voters in the district have rejected the last three levies put on the ballot.

The voters will decide on a six-mill additional and 4.5-mill renewal levy in the November election.

The district has about 5,200 students.

Schedule Hearing In Pollution Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Environmental Protection Agency has scheduled an enforcement conference in Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 13 to curb pollution of the Ohio River from Toronto to Shadyside, Ohio.

EPA Administrator William French Smith said Tuesday pollution from industrial sources and municipalities has adversely affected drinking water, fishing and recreation involving contact with the river water.

Water quality standards for phenols, cyanides and coliform bacteria are being violated, he said, and salmonella bacteria have been found.

Australia's native bear, the koala, is a marsupial. It lives in the gum trees.

Five Points News

By Mrs. Francis Furniss

There were 30 present at the United Methodist Sunday School Sunday morning. Worship service followed with 48 present. The annual turkey supper will be held on Saturday evening Oct. 6 serving from 5 til 8 p.m. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Michel were hosts to the members of the Five Points United Methodist Social Hour Club when they met Friday evening at the church for their September meeting. A lovely carry-in supper was enjoyed preceding the meeting.

A short business session was held and 16 members answered roll call. The secretary, Mrs. Francis Furniss, read the minutes of the last meeting and cards of appreciation from the families of Charles Hosler and Etta Neff. She also read "thank you" notes from Otha Lewis, Helen Phillips and Lulu Sheets for flowers they received while in the hospital. Mrs. Clark Dennis, treasurer, gave the financial report and Mrs. E. L. Sheets played birthday dues. Rev. and Mrs. Spear were present and showed beautiful slides of Longwood Gardens in Pennsylvania and Kingwood Center at Mansfield. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winfough, Mr. and Mrs. Elbee Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Furniss, Miss Laura Long, Mrs. Helen Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Michel and Rev. and Mrs. Printis Spear. The October meeting will be held Oct. 29 at the church with Mr. and Mrs. Elbee Jones as hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbee Jones were Thursday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houbell of Baltimore.

Mrs. Shirlet Anderson was the Saturday afternoon guest of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Furniss and Miss Laura Long.

Mrs. Herman Porter, Mrs. Loring Stoer, Mrs. Francis Furniss, Miss Laura Long and Mrs. Arthur Winfough, members of the Five Points WCTU attended the Pickaway County WCTU Convention Friday at Salem Church. Mrs. Noma Hankins, County President, had charge of the business meeting. A carry-in dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour. Mrs. Francis Furniss gave the morning devotion and Miss Laura Long gave the memorial service for the deceased members in the county this last year. There were two from Five Points Union. They were Mrs. Marie Dick and Mrs. Etta Neff. Mrs. Herman Porter installed the new officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Harold Brill and children Terry and Tracy of Sedalia, Mr. Robert Riley of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. William Riley and family were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Parker and daughters Peggy and Patty of Columbus were Sunday dinner guests of her mother, Mrs. Shirley Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Haller were Wednesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tedrick and family of Goshen.

Officer Freed Of Boros Charge

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A U. S. district court jury found Cleveland Patrolman Donald Kupiecki innocent Tuesday of a charge of violating the civil rights of a Chicago television cameraman in 1968.

The charge had been filed against the policeman by the federal government and was prosecuted by the civil rights branch of the Justice Department in Washington.

Julius Boros, a cameraman for the National Broadcasting Co., had charged that he was attacked by Kupiecki and other unidentified policemen when he attempted to film an arrest during disturbances in the city's East Side Glenville area in July, 1968.

Set Upgraded Water Quality Standards

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Proposed upgraded water quality standards which would require industrial water sources to be clean enough for fish and plant life were to be discussed today at a public hearing of the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board.

The upgrading is being made to meet requirements of the federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). If adopted by the board, it would be the third time since 1966 that Ohio water quality standards have been upgraded.

OU Offers Arbitration Plan On 2 Union Grievances

The Circleville Herald, Wed. Sept. 29, 1971 13
Circleville, Ohio

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University has offered to submit to binding arbitration two of the grievances which have led to a strike by 900 non-academic employees.

The proposal was contained in a letter from university Personnel Director Ward Wilson to Oscar McGee, president of Local 1699, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

The university said the letter was delivered late Tuesday night. McGee was not available for comment.

Wilson proposed that "immediately upon conclusion of the strike" both sides submit grievances over layoffs of service and laundry personnel and Baker Center employees to arbitrators of the federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Wilson also offered to submit the entire grievance procedure with which the union has expressed dissatisfaction, to binding arbitration.

Meanwhile, the counsel for the union said he plans to challenge the qualifications of a judge who issued an injunction against the walkout.

Herschel Sigall contends

Howard Goldsberry is a practicing Ross County attorney and therefore not permitted to act as a judge in the case.

Goldsberry, a retired Ross County jurist, was assigned to the case temporarily after the regular Athens County Common Pleas Court judge, Lowell Howard, a former Ohio University law professor, disqualified himself.

Sigall will present the union's position at a hearing Thursday morning on a contempt charge filed against Local President Oscar McGee after the union failed to obey an injunction issued by Goldsberry.

The hearing was moved from Wednesday to Thursday by Judge Harley Meyer of Hocking County the third judge assigned to the case, at the request of Sigall because of the Jewish holiday.

The 900 non-academic workers struck over Ohio University's alleged refusal to negotiate a number of grievances. The university has said the union already has recourse to grievance procedures within the framework of its contract.

The university has remained in operation during the strike.

Lima Workers Face Job Loss

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — The Ekelco Corp. announced Tuesday it was phasing out one of its plants because of a lack of business in the aero-space industry.

Jack Guest, vice president of the turbine division, said the phase-out of its Williams Avenue plant will be accomplished over the next six months. About 150 jobs will be affected.

Guest said Ekelco's other facilities in Lima, which make blades for jet engines and parts for land gas turbine engines, will not be affected.

Hit Brown's Expenditures For Trips

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic State Chairman William Lavelle has accused Lt. Gov. John Brown of "the worst form of political hypocrisy" by criticizing some of the expenditures of Gov. John Gilligan.

Lavelle said that while Brown has "piously" criticized Gilligan's "above-board" use of state cars and aircraft, Brown has been "living high at taxpayers' expense."

Examples cited by Lavelle included a trip by Brown to Cleveland on Nov. 18, 1970, in a Highway Department plane to address a Republican gathering, and trips to the 1969 and 1970 national lieutenant governors' conferences, which Lavelle said were made at taxpayers' expense.

"The people of this state are entitled to an immediate explanation of these incidents," Lavelle said.

He said the governor has made the records of his office accessible to the public and stands behind every expenditure of the office and staff.

"In contrast," he said, "we find the lieutenant governor talking out of one side of his mouth and spending out of the other."

U.S. Press Too Touchy, Ziegler Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says the press is too sensitive to criticism by government officials like that recently made by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew.

"In well over two years, I don't think there was any instance that the administration showed anything but respect for the free press," presidential press secretary Roy Ziegler said Tuesday.

The issue came up when newsmen questioned Ziegler about American Civil Liberties Union complaints that Agnew's statements Monday in Anaheim, Calif., about coverage of the recent Attica, N.Y., prison riot constituted intimidation of the press. Ziegler said he would not comment on what Agnew said, but he backed the vice president's "right to express himself."

He said the government should be open to criticism and the press should also.

He declined to comment on whether the administration would favor legislation to protect reporters' sources. A Senate subcommittee has been holding freedom-of-the-press hearings and has been trying to get government officials to testify about press-government relations.

Nixon's director of communications, Herbert G. Klein, refused an invitation to testify on grounds he is a member of the immediate staff of the President.

'Grass' Crop Brings Arrest At Lakewood

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A Lakewood couple accused of having marijuana plants growing in their backyard has been bound over to the Cuyahoga County grand jury on a charge of cultivation of marijuana.

Frank Amato, 28, and his wife, Sharon, 25, pleaded innocent when they were arraigned last week. Each is free on $5,000 bond.

At a hearing Tuesday before Lakewood Municipal Judge Harold Craig, Detective Robert Holmok said he found marijuana plants growing in the garden at the Amato home when he went there Sept. 8 after receiving a tip from Cleveland police.

He said the marijuana plants were surrounded by corn and tomato plants, but had outgrown them. He estimated the market value of the marijuana when mature at $400.

The cutworm is not a worm but the larva or caterpillar of various moths.

Health Office Gets Second Auto In Board Meeting

Another auto will be contracted for use of the Pickaway County Health Department, it was announced in regular board meeting Friday.

Since the department has employed another sanitarian, this move was deemed necessary to have transportation available for health nurse and sanitarians. In conjunction the board requested the staff to present a form for discussion pertaining to department auto use at the October meeting. The board also decided to have health department signs painted on the autos.

F. A. Z. Wildasin, owner of Vantage Point Trailer Park, submitted a sketch of the park, as requested by the board, with planned expansion.

It was announced that department clerks Lorene Miller and Effie Davis will attend the Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics in Columbus Oct. 27 and 28.

The annual Rabies Clinic, under chairman Mrs. David Drum, farm bureau, will be held Nov. 14 in the afternoon.

Greeks, Turks To Play Host For Agnew Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will visit Turkey and Greece in September to confer with the two NATO allies, the White House has announced.

Agnew will visit Turkey Oct. 11-13 while en route to Iran's 2,500th birthday party Oct. 13-16, press secretary Ronald Ziegler said Tuesday. Agnew will be the official United States representative at the gala Iranian fete. He will then proceed to Greece Oct. 16-18, staying there afterwards for a brief private visit, Ziegler said.

Agnew will not be carrying any special messages to either government, Ziegler said, but will be "talking to leaders of both countries about NATO matters."

Mosquitoes in western Siberia this summer caused nervous cattle to lose sleep and their ability to give milk.

County sanitarian Thoburn Blaney submitted his monthly report to the board, which included county-wide water, sewer and restaurant inspections.

Mrs. Helen Pickens presented the nurses report. She noted that during September, 253 first grade students not previously screened in pre-school clinics were screened by health nurses.

Of those screened, 40 were found to have teeth defects, 20 with bad tonsils, 11 with poor hearing, 16 with poor speech, 29 with impaired vision. Nurses also gave 125 immunizations.

Due to the increase of the work load at the Pickaway County Health Office, Mrs. Effie Davis has been required to work in that area instead of in the schools. Mrs. Nancy Happeney accompanied and assisted the nurse in visiting the schools.

In addition to the screening program conducted, six cases of impetigo were found. Patients with the disease were referred to private physicians. Those who could not go to private doctors were given instructions for treatment.

One child received glasses, the cost absorbed by the Lion's Club. Five other children previously noted to have defective vision already had glasses obtained by their parents.

Seven children, listed under Crippled Children's Service, were visited.

Three venereal disease cases were treated.

One potential case of meningitis was reported and direct contacts were placed on preventative medication as directed by County Health Commissioner, Frank Moore, M.D.

It was also noted at the meeting that Hugh Barnhill, department worker, recently completed the Principles of Environmental Health series of educational classes conducted by the Ohio Department of Health.

In an effort to evaluate and improve the training course, the Ohio Department is using the APHA Pre- and Post-Tests developed for such purposes.

Barnhill was six points below the class average on the Pre-Test, but was 11 points higher on the final and ranked first in his group of five.

Northern Demos Seek To Avoid Busing Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Northern Democrats, caught in the school desegregation controversy for the first time, are trying to block House action on a bill that would force them to vote on the busing issue.

Mostly liberals with good civil-rights records, they are caught between pro-busing civil-rights forces and growing anti-busing sentiment in their home districts.

The bill they would like to bury is President Nixon's $1.5-billion emergency school aid program.

Using every parliamentary device available they thwarted efforts in the Education and Labor Committee to force a vote on the bill this week, the unofficial deadline for completing committee action on legislation to be considered this year.

The bill has been knocking about in Congress for nearly 18 months since Nixon asked for it as an emergency measure to help Southern schools meet an August, 1970 desegregation deadline set by the Supreme Court.

Largely ignored by Northerners, whose districts wouldn't get much money, and viewed tepidly by Southerners who would like the money but not the federal presence that goes with it, it has been befriended mainly by administration supporters and civil-rights groups.

This support was weakened, however, by Nixon's decree last August that none of the money be used to pay for busing pupils.

The decree also has made it certain busing will be the chief issue if the bill ever reaches the House floor. With that certainty and with busing now a white-hot issue in many Northern cities, a concerted effort is being made in the committee to bottle up the bill.

The action erupted publicly Tuesday while the committee was working on a big higher-education bill pushed in ahead of the desegregation bill.

A request by Rep. James H. Scheuer, D-N.Y., that consideration of a key section of the higher-education bill be put off until Thursday because of today's Jewish holiday produced a parliamentary free-for-all.

Supporters of the desegregation bill suspicious of requests for any delay, refused to grant it.

A majority of the committee voted for the postponement requested by Scheuer. But Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., chief advocate of the desegregation bill, promptly moved to set 10:15 a.m. Thursday as the deadline for a final vote on the higher-education bill so the committee still would have time to consider the school-aid program.

Many motions, points of order and barbed exchanges later, Quie's motion was adopted, only to be thrown out because a quorum was no longer present. On that angry note the committee broke up, scheduled to resume battle today.

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Temperatures remained in the upper 60s and 70s at dawn today under clear skies as warm, southerly air pushed across the state.

Highs this afternoon were forecast to reach the 80s. Highs Tuesday ranged to a high of 83 at Canton.

A cold front was expected to push over the state today, bringing some showers followed by cooler weather this evening.

Lows tonight were expected to dip to the 50s and 60s followed by highs Thursday in the 70s and 80s. Drier weather will accompany the falling temperatures.

CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST — Cloudy and cooler with a chance of showers tonight. Lows in the low 60s. Mostly sunny and less humid Thursday. Highs in the upper 70s and low 80s.

Visit To Poland Set By Gradison

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati Mayor Willis Gradison Jr. will spend Oct. 3 through Oct. 16 visiting with government officials in five cities in Poland.

Gradison, along with mayors from other U.S. cities, will visit officials in Warsaw, Krakow, Katowice, Odansk and Wroclaw as part of a trip sponsored by the U.S. Department of State.

The mayors will also stop to meet with officials in Munich, Germany.

Cleveland Council Given Voter Shakeup

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The black 21st Congressional District caucus landed eight city council seats in Tuesday's primary election in Cleveland, while veteran councilman Jack Russell was ousted from a seat he had held since 1944.

Exactly two-thirds of the city's 33 councilmen retained their seats by obtaining 50 per cent plus one of the total votes cast in their wards, but five other incumbents were forced into run-off elections, Nov. 2.

Health Office Gets Second Auto In Board Meeting

Another auto will be contracted for use of the Pickaway County Health Department, it was announced in regular board meeting Friday.

Since the department has employed another sanitarian, this move was deemed necessary to have transportation available for health nurse and sanitarians. In conjunction the board requested the staff to present a form for discussion pertaining to department auto use at the October meeting. The board also decided to have health department signs painted on the autos.

F. A. Z. Wildasin, owner of Vantage Point Trailer Park, submitted a sketch of the park, as requested by the board, with planned expansion.

It was announced that department clerk Lorene Miller and Effie Davis will attend the Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics in Columbus Oct. 27 and 28.

The annual Rabies Clinic, under chairman Mrs. David Drum, farm bureau, will be held Nov. 14 in the afternoon.

Greeks, Turks To Play Host For Agnew Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will visit Turkey and Greece in September to confer with the two NATO allies, the White House has announced.

Agnew will visit Turkey Oct. 11-13 while en route to Iran's 2500th birthday party Oct. 13-16, press secretary Ronald Ziegler said Tuesday. Agnew will be the official United States representative at the gala Iranian fete. He will then proceed to Greece Oct. 16-18, staying there afterwards for a brief private visit, Ziegler said.

Agnew will not be carrying any special messages to either government, Ziegler said, but will be "talking to leaders of both countries about NATO matters."

Mosquitoes in western Siberia this summer caused nervous cattle to lose sleep and their ability to give milk.

County sanitarian Thoburn Blaney submitted his monthly report to the board, which included county-wide water, sewer and restaurant inspections.

Mrs. Helen Pickens presented the nurses report. She noted that during September, 253 first grade students not previously screened in pre-school clinics were screened by health nurses.

Of those screened, 40 were found to have teeth defects, 20 with bad tonsils, 11 with poor hearing, 16 with poor speech, 29 with impaired vision. Nurses also gave 125 immunizations.

Due to the increase of the work load at the Pickaway County Health Office, Mrs. Effie Davis has been required to work in that area instead of in the schools. Mrs. Nancy Happeney accompanied and assisted the nurse in visiting the schools.

In addition to the screening program conducted, six cases of impetigo were found. Patients with the disease were referred to private physicians. Those who could not go to private doctors were given instructions for treatment.

One child received glasses, the cost absorbed by the Lion's Club. Five other children previously noted to have defective vision already had glasses obtained by their parents.

Seven children, listed under Crippled Children's Service, were visited.

Three venereal disease cases were treated.

One potential case of meningitis was reported and direct contacts were placed on preventative medication as directed by County Health Commissioner, Frank Moore, M.D.

It was also noted at the meeting that Hugh Barnhill, department worker, recently completed the Principles of Environmental Health series of educational classes conducted by the Ohio Department of Health.

In an effort to evaluate and improve the training course, the Ohio Department is using the APHA Pre- and Post-Tests developed for such purposes.

Barnhill was six points below the class average on the Pre-Test, but was 11 points higher on the final and ranked first in his group of five.

Northern Demos Seek To Avoid Busing Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Northern Democrats, caught in the school desegregation controversy for the first time, are trying to block House action on a bill that would force them to vote on the busing issue.

Mostly liberals with good civil-rights records, they are caught between pro-busing civil-rights forces and growing anti-busing sentiment in their home districts.

The bill they would like to bury is President Nixon's $1.5-billion emergency school aid program.

Using every parliamentary device available they thwarted efforts in the Education and Labor Committee to force a vote on the bill this week, the unofficial deadline for completing committee action on legislation to be considered this year.

The bill has been knocking about in Congress for nearly 18 months since Nixon asked for it as an emergency measure to help Southern schools meet an August, 1970 desegregation deadline set by the Supreme Court.

Largely ignored by Northerners, whose districts wouldn't get much money, and viewed tepidly by Southerners who would like the money but not the federal presence that goes with it, it has been befriended mainly by administration supporters and civil-rights groups.

This support was weakened, however, by Nixon's decree last August that none of the money be used to pay for busing pupils.

The decree also has made it certain busing will be the chief issue if the bill ever reaches the House floor. With that certainty and with busing now a white-hot issue in many Northern cities, a concerted effort is being made in the committee to bottle up the bill.

The action erupted publicly Tuesday while the committee

was working on a big higher-education bill pushed in ahead of the desegregation bill.

A request by Rep. James H. Scheuer, D-N.Y., that consideration of a key section of the higher-education bill be put off until Thursday because of today's Jewish holiday produced a parliamentary free-for-all.

Supporters of the desegregation bill suspicious of requests for any delay, refused to grant it.

A majority of the committee voted for the postponement requested by Scheuer. But Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., chief advocate of the desegregation bill, promptly moved to set 10:15 a.m. Thursday as the deadline for a final vote on the higher-education bill so the committee still would have time to consider the school-aid program.

Many motions, points of order and barbed exchanges later, Quie's motion was adopted, only to be thrown out because a quorum was no longer present. On that angry note the committee broke up, scheduled to resume battle today.

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Temperatures remained in the upper 60s add 70s at dawn today under clear skies as warm, southerly air pushed across the state.

Highs this afternoon were forecast to reach the 80s. Highs Tuesday ranged to a high of 83 at Canton.

A cold front was expected to push over the state today, bringing some showers followed by cooler weather this evening.

Lows tonight were expected to dip to the 50s and 60s followed by highs Thursday in the 70s and 80s. Drier weather will accompany the falling temperatures.

The extended outlook calls for temperatures to dip to the 40s and 50s Saturday and Sunday as a more intense cold front sweeps through the state Friday.

FORECASTS

OHIO — Partly cloudy and cooler tonight with a chance of showers south. Lows from the upper 50s to lower 60s. Sunny and less humid Thursday. Highs in the 70s north and upper 70s to low 80s south.

NORTHWEST INLAND, NORTHEAST INLAND, EAST LAKE SHORE, NORTHEAST INLAND, WEST CENTRAL — Partly cloudy and cooler tonight. Lows in the upper 50s and low 60s. Sunny and less humid Thursday. Highs in the 70s.

County Teams At Home In League Contests

All three county schools will be engaged in league action this week on their home grounds. Teays Valley will meet Franklin Heights, Westfall battles Piketon and Logan Elm takes on Adena.

Teays Valley will be out to defend its share of the Metropolitan League crown when the winless Falcons of Franklin Heights hit the Viking sod.

The Falcons have dropped their first three games but have gone up against some rough competition, Westland, Grove City and Washington C. H.

THE Vikings have proven they can move the ball in their encounters against Circleville and Logan Elm, but are still working on the defense.

"Our defense hasn't come around as yet," Viking coach Dick Kidwell commented, "but we have been putting a lot of effort into it this week, especially on kickoff coverage."

Hard running Steve Clark is still hampered by a knee injury and will not see action this week. Roy Good will take over

Senators Stop Yanks, 4-2; Home Crowd Discontented

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer

There were 3,242 hardy fans hanging around in Washington—one of them literally.

It was hardly one of the Senators' biggest crowds of the season—but it might have been considered gigantic compared to the cozy gathering of 1,311 that watched them play a week ago.

But Monday night's group wasn't entirely in a friendly mood, despite the Senators' 4-2 victory over the New York Yankees in the start of their final home stand of the season.

The fans' biggest cheers of the night didn't go to Dick Billings and Jeff Brroughs, whose-run-scoring hits in the seventh inning gave Washington its margin of victory.

Nor were they reserved for Joe Grzenda, who pitched three innings of one-hit relief for the victory.

They didn't even go to New York's Roy White, who set an American League record with his 17th sacrifice fly of the season.

The ovation went instead to one of the fans—who spent the better part of the game parading around cavernous Robert F. Kennedy Stadium with an effigy of Senators owner Bob Short.

It was a week ago that Short was given permission by the CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati guard Pat Matson does not view the Bengals' 21-10 defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh Sunday as a total loss.

"I just look at it as a good lesson for everyone to know that you can be beaten — even by a team you know you should beat," Matson said Tuesday following a workout on a weight machine.

The last part of his statement was a reference to the fact that Cincinnati was generally favored to beat the Steelers, as the Bengals had entered the contest without a loss in any of their games this year.

"We have a good ball club, but even the best get beat," Matson continued.

As guard, Matson often had the assignment of trying to stop standout tackle Joe Greene who led the Steelers' rugged defense effort Sunday.

Meet The Mustangs

Larry Adams (44) and Mike Martin (81) are members of the Westfall High School football team. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, Route 1, Orient, and Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Martin, Route 3. Adams is a junior and Martin is a sophomore.

Clark's halfback spot on offense and either freshman Chuck Glitt or sophomore Mike Pettibone will take his place as defensive cornerback.

The Vikings offensive unit will have Craig Fleming and Mike Pettibone sharing the split end slot with Jim Logsden at the tight end.

Jack Brinker and Jim Pabst will be the tackles, Tony Archer and Howard Reed the guards and Jim Pritchard will be at center.

TERRY Lambert will be the quarterback, Dale Harris at tailback, Good at halfback and Ken Stewart will run from the fullback spot.

Defensively Teays Valley will have Pabst and Brinker at the ends with Steve Gray and Reed at the tackles. Terry McDaniel will be at the middle guard post.

Jeff Beatty, Elmer Hines and either Glitt or Pettibone will round out the secondary.

Westfall will be attempting to get things into gear and come up with its first win of the season when they meet the Red Devils of Piketon.

THE Red Devils bring a 2-1 record into the contest and should prove to be a real test for the young Mustangs.

Piketon is a big team with average speed and likes to run from an unbalanced line. The Red Devils have a good passing game and will test the Westfall secondary.

"We just had a bad game against East Clinton and made mistakes," Westfall coach Bill Vance stated. "We came into the contest after a rough physical and mental game against Mt. Sterling and our kids were just not up for East Clinton," Vance continued.

Dave Shannon, the Mustang quarterback, has a broken hand and will be out of the Piketon game. Larry Adams will move in and run the Westfall offense.

The rest of the Mustangs are suffering from bumps and bruises but are expected to be ready Friday night.

On offense the Mustangs will

Richards Sets CC Record At Southeastern

Steve Richards set a new cross country record of 10:28 at Southeastern to pace Circleville to a 19-36 win over Southeastern Tuesday on the latter's course.

Richards fine time broke the old school record of 10:49.

The Tigers gained seven of the first 12 places and ran their season record to 5-0.

Dick Liston was second (10:31), Jeff Robbins third (10:42), Glen Gillespie fifth (10:51), Matt McGowan was eighth (10:57), Joe McGowan ninth (11:00) and Pete McDaniel finished twelfth (11:47).

Southeastern is now 4-1 for the season in cross country competition.

Coach John Lawhorn will send his runners back into action 4:30 p.m. Thursday when they host Bexley at the fairgrounds.

Tigers Top Tribe, 4-2; Coleman 20th

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — There's a new formula American League pitchers are using to win their 20th game — pitch against the Cleveland Indians.

Baltimore's Jim Palmer, Mike Cuellar and Pat Dobson all won their 20th games over the weekend against the Indians and Joe Coleman upped his record to 20-9 Tuesday night with a 4-2 decision over the Tribe.

Coleman's route-going, nine-hit effort followed completion of the final two innings of a game suspended on June 20 with the Indians winning 8-7.

Coleman, traded to Detroit this season, took a verbal slap at his old Washington team after becoming the 10th American League pitcher to win 20 games this season. The feat hasn't been accomplished since 10 hurlers won 20 in 1920.

"I don't know what to say," said Coleman, who was backed by Norm Cash's two home runs. "It's great, but it's especially great after having spent four years over there in Washington."

"Over there I had to scuffle for every win," Coleman said, "and I don't think I ever was able to pitch as well as I can."

Tigers Manager Billy Martin said after the game that if Coleman hadn't won, he would have pitched in Wednesday night's season finale in an effort to post his 20th.

Martin said he planned to start Mickey Lolich Wednesday and let him complete four innings, enough to surpass Bob Feller's total of 371 innings pitched in a season. The total is the most for any pitcher since 1944.

Martin said he then planned to let Coleman pitch the final innings, but the plan is no longer necessary.

CHS Boosters Meet

Circleville Boosters will meet tonight at 8 in the high school cafeteria where films of the Circleville-Hamilton Twp. game will be shown.

Buckeyes And Flossies Face Akron City Title Showdown

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Those football playing twins of Akron, the Flossies and Buckeyes, are on a winning timetable toward another city title showdown.

The Buckeyes, split end Don and quarterback Dave, led Akron Kenmore to a championship victory in 1970 over the Flossies, cornerback Bruce and quarterback Ben who play for Akron Garfield.

A feared passing combination, the Buckeyes are a

Braves Stop Cincy Reds

ATLANTA (AP) — "I was getting ahead of most of the batters," declared knuckleballer Phil Niekro after his three-hitter carried Atlanta to a 4-0 triumph over Cincinnati and clinched third place for the Braves in the National League West.

"I also had a pretty good fast ball and a pretty good slider," said Niekro after his 15th victory. He has lost 14.

He struck out three and did not give up a walk in beating Reds rookie Ross Grimsley, 10-7.

Ralph Garr, who extended his hitting streak to 22 games, drew aftergame praise from Braves Manager Luman Harris. "Ralph Garr may break a lot of hitting records before he's through," said Harris.

Garr followed Felix Millan's two-out walk in the third with a double that gave Niekro the only run he needed. Then the Braves broke it open in the eighth.

After Garr and Hank Aaron singled, Earl Williams doubled them both home after he scored on Dusty Baker's double.

"I don't see how Earl Williams can miss being Rookie of the Year," said Harris.

Long, Cates Named Top MAC Pair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Toledo tackle Mel Long and Western Michigan halfback Larry Cates were named Mid-American Conference football players of the week today.

Long, a 6-foot-1, 230-pound senior from Toledo, was cited for his defensive play. He figured in 19 tackles, caught six runners behind the line, deflected apass and caused a blocked punt in the Rockets' 23-0 victory over Texas-Arlington.

The league's offensive selection, Cates, 5-11, 190-pound sophomore from Columbus, rolled up 146 yards in 16 rushes and returned two kickoffs 4 yards as Western Michigan beat Northern Illinois 27-17.

Others considered by a panel of sports writers were Tony Bell of Bowling Green, Mike Poff and Marc Smith of Miami, Dave Juenger and Pete Rosar of Ohio University, Chuck Easley of Toledo, Dennis Sweeney of Western Michigan and Eddie Woodard of Kent State.

Local PP&K Contest Set For Saturday

The local Punt, Pass and Kick competition, sponsored by Rod Bell Motor Sales, will be held noon Saturday at the high school practice field.

Boys 8-13 years of age are eligible but must sign up at Rod Bell's on N. Court St. by Friday. They must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. There is no entry fee or charge of any kind.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded in the local competition in each of the six age groups. Increasing the boys' chances of winning one of the 18 trophies is the fact that each boy competes against other boys his own age. And, since there is no body contact, a boy's size is not as important as his ability to punt, pass and place-kick for distance with accuracy.

It's possible that one or more of our local winners could wind up in the finals, which this year will be held at the Super Bowl Game on January 16. Here finalists and their parents are Ford's guests will take a special tour of fabulous New Orleans, enjoy a Banquet of Champions celebration, and have the chance to meet some of the top professional players and coaches.

When he registers, each boy gets a free PP&K Tips Book. It contains helpful pointers from the pros on punting, passing and kicking. In the '71 edition are suggestions from NFL stars Dave Lewis, John Brodie and Curt Knight, plus Coaches of the Year Ron McCafferty and Tom Landry. Complete PP&K rules and suggested conditioning exercises for contestants are also included.

This is the 11th year PP&K has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League. In that time more than 7,000,000 boys have taken part in PP&K, making it the biggest and best youth activity of its kind in America.

Stant is working with a lot of new faces in the backfield. Kenny Kurtz, out since the first game, suited up for practice this week and is expected to be ready. He perhaps has the most experience at the halfback position although he has seen little action this year.

Center is Chris Payne. Other starting linemen will be Mike Williams and Denny Schaal at guards, Steve Pusey and Brad Barr at tackles and Alex Jones and Bob Brown at ends.

Don Dean, injured in the first game, is working out again with the team and may see limited action at the guard position. Dean Godden will alternate with Brown at end and Jim Bigham will be available center when Payne needs a rest.

DEFENSIVELY the line will be Dan Phillips and John Mead at ends, Barr and Pusey at Tackles and Justus at middle guard. George Diehl, who has been playing middle guard, will be moved to a tackle position.

Linebackers are Punk Jones and Steve DeBruin, cornerbacks are Dean Godden and Bob Brown and safetys are Steve Fischer and Rod Howard. Williams and Teets will see a lot of defensive action.

ATLANTA (AP) — "I was getting ahead of most of the batters," declared knuckleballer Phil Niekro after his three-hitter carried Atlanta to a 4-0 triumph over Cincinnati and clinched third place for the Braves in the National League West.

"I also had a pretty good fast ball and a pretty good slider," said Niekro after his 15th victory. He has lost 14.

He struck out three and did not give up a walk in beating Reds rookie Ross Grimsley, 10-7.

Ralph Garr, who extended his hitting streak to 22 games, drew aftergame praise from Braves Manager Luman Harris. "Ralph Garr may break a lot of hitting records before he's through," said Harris.

Garr followed Felix Millan's two-out walk in the third with a double that gave Niekro the only run he needed. Then the Braves broke it open in the eighth.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Toledo tackle Mel Long and Western Michigan halfback Larry Cates were named Mid-American Conference football players of the week today.

Long, a 6-foot-1, 230-pound senior from Toledo, was cited for his defensive play. He figured in 19 tackles, caught six runners behind the line, deflected apass and caused a blocked punt in the Rockets' 23-0 victory over Texas-Arlington.

The league's offensive selection, Cates, 5-11, 190-pound sophomore from Columbus, rolled up 146 yards in 16 rushes and returned two kickoffs 4 yards as Western Michigan beat Northern Illinois 27-17.

Others considered by a panel of sports writers were Tony Bell of Bowling Green, Mike Poff and Marc Smith of Miami, Dave Juenger and Pete Rosar of Ohio University, Chuck Easley of Toledo, Dennis Sweeney of Western Michigan and Eddie Woodard of Kent State.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — There's a new formula American League pitchers are using to win their 20th game — pitch against the Cleveland Indians.

Baltimore's Jim Palmer, Mike Cuellar and Pat Dobson all won their 20th games over the weekend against the Indians and Joe Coleman upped his record to 20-9 Tuesday night with a 4-2 decision over the Tribe.

Coleman's route-going, nine-hit effort followed completion of the final two innings of a game suspended on June 20 with the Indians winning 8-7.

Coleman, traded to Detroit this season, took a verbal slap at his old Washington team after becoming the 10th American League pitcher to win 20 games this season. The feat hasn't been accomplished since 10 hurlers won 20 in 1920.

"I don't know what to say," said Coleman, who was backed by Norm Cash's two home runs. "It's great, but it's especially great after having spent four years over there in Washington."

"Over there I had to scuffle for every win," Coleman said, "and I don't think I ever was able to pitch as well as I can."

Tigers Manager Billy Martin said after the game that if Coleman hadn't won, he would have pitched in Wednesday night's season finale in an effort to post his 20th.

Martin said he planned to start Mickey Lolich Wednesday and let him complete four innings, enough to surpass Bob Feller's total of 371 innings pitched in a season. The total is the most for any pitcher since 1944.

Martin said he then planned to let Coleman pitch the final innings, but the plan is no longer necessary.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati guard Pat Matson does not view the Bengals' 21-10 defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh Sunday as a total loss.

"I just look at it as a good lesson for everyone to know that you can be beaten — even by a team you know you should beat," Matson said Tuesday following a workout on a weight machine.

The last part of his statement was a reference to the fact that Cincinnati was generally favored to beat the Steelers, as the Bengals had entered the contest without a loss in any of their games this year.

"We have a good ball club, but even the best get beat," Matson continued.

As guard, Matson often had the assignment of trying to stop standout tackle Joe Greene who led the Steelers' rugged defense effort Sunday.

County Teams At Home In League Contests

All three county schools will be engaged in league action this week on their home grounds. Teays Valley will meet Franklin Heights, Westfall battles Piketon and Logan Elm takes on Adena.

Teays Valley will be out to defend its share of the Metropolitan League crown when the winless Falcons of Franklin Heights hit the Viking sod.

The Falcons have dropped their first three games but have gone up against some rough competition, Westland, Grove City and Washington C. H.

Franklin Heights will field a young squad which has speed but lacks size. Defensively the Falcons have shown some merit but haven't been able to generate a solid offensive game.

THE Vikings have proven they can move the ball in their encounters against Circleville and Logan Elm, but are still working on the defense.

"Our defense hasn't come around as yet," Viking coach Dick Kidwell commented, "but we have been putting a lot of effort into it this week, especially on kickoff coverage."

Hard running Steve Clark is still hampered by a knee injury and will not see action this week. Roy Good will take over

Clark's halfback spot on offense and either freshman Chuck Glitt or sophomore Mike Pettibone will take his place as defensive cornerback.

George Hardbarger will move into Good's monster back position on defense.

The Vikings offensive unit will have Craig Fleming and Mike Pettibone sharing the split end slot with Jim Logsdan at the tight end.

Jack Brinker and Jim Pabst will be the tackles, Tony Archer and Howard Reed the guards and Jim Pritchard will be at center.

TERRY Lambert will be the

JUNIOR MUSTANGS—These junior members of the Westfall High School football team are expected to see plenty of action Friday night when the Mustangs host Piketon in a Scioto Valley Conference clash. ## Senators Stop Yanks, 4 - 2; Home Crowd Discontented

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer

There were 3,242 hardy fans hanging around in Washington—one of them literally.

It was hardly one of the Senators' biggest crowds of the season—but it might have been considered gigantic compared to the cozy gathering of 1,311 that watched them play a week ago.

But Monday night's group wasn't entirely in a friendly mood, despite the Senators' 4-2 victory over the New York Yankees in the start of their final home stand of the season.

The fans' biggest cheers of the night didn't go to Dick Billings and Jeff Brroughs, whose run-scoring hits in the seventh inning gave Washington its margin of victory.

Nor were they reserved for Joe Grzenda, who pitched three innings of one-hit relief for the victory.

They didn't even go to New York's Roy White, who set an American League record with his 17th sacrifice fly of the season.

The ovation went instead to one of the fans—who spent the better part of the game parading around cavernous Robert F. Kennedy Stadium with an effigy of Senators owner Bob Short.

It was a week ago that Short was given permission by the rest of the league owners to move his team to Dallas - Fort Worth next season.

In other American League games, Cleveland beat Detroit 8-7 in the conclusion of a June 20 suspended game before the Tigers won 4-2 in the regularly scheduled contest, Baltimore swept a two-night doubleheader from Boston 10-2 and 5-4, Oakland edged Kansas City.

Bengal Loss Not Total, Matson Says

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati guard Pat Matson does not view the Bengals' 21-10 defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh Sunday as a total loss.

"I just look at it as a good lesson for everyone to know that you can be beaten — even by a team you know you should beat," Matson said Tuesday following a workout on a weight machine.

Name Herb Adderley Tops On Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — "I feel as young as I did in my rookie year," exclaimed veteran Herb Adderley of Dallas, who played with a vengeance — and with good reason — against Philadelphia.

The 32-year-old defensive back intercepted three passes and returned them 102 yards to set up a pair of touchdowns last Sunday in the Cowboys' 42-7 victory, thus winning honors as the Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Tigers Top Tribe, 4-2; Coleman 20th

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — There's a new formula American League pitchers are using to win their 20th game — pitch against the Cleveland Indians.

Baltimore's Jim Palmer, Mike Cuellar and Pat Dobson all won their 20th games over the weekend against the Indians and Joe Coleman upped his record to 29-9 Tuesday night with a 4-2 decision over the Tribe.

Coleman's route-going, nine-hit effort followed completion of the final two innings of a game suspended on June 20 with the Indians winning 8-7.

Coleman, traded to Detroit this season, took a verbal slap at his old Washington team after becoming the 10th American League pitcher to win 20 games this season. The feat hasn't been accomplished since 10 hurlers won 20 in 1920.

Martin said he then planned to let Coleman pitch the final innings, but the plan is no longer necessary.

Meet The Mustangs

Larry Adams (44) and Mike Martin (81) are members of the Westfall High School football team. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, Route 1, Orient, and Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Martin, Route 3, Adams is a junior and Martin is a sophomore.

CHS Boosters Meet

Circleville Boosters will meet tonight at 8 in the high school cafeteria where films of the Circleville-Hamilton Twp. game will be shown.

quarterback, Dale Harris at tailback, Good at halfback and Ken Stewart will run from the fullback spot.

The Vikings will operate with a triple option from the I formation.

Defensively Teays Valley will have Pabst and Brinker at the ends with Steve Gray and Reed at the tackles. Terry McDaniel will be at the middle guard post.

Jim Williamson and Jerry Sabine will be the linebackers with Hardbarger as the monster man.

Jeff Beatty, Elmer Hines and either Glitt or Pettibone will round out the secondary.

Westfall will be attempting to get things into gear and come up with its first win of the season when they meet the Red Devils of Piketon.

THE Red Devils bring a 2-1 record into the contest and should prove to be a real test for the young Mustangs.

Piketon is a big team with average speed and likes to run from an unbalanced line. The Red Devils have a good passing game and will test the Westfall secondary.

"We just had a bad game against East Clinton and made mistakes," Westfall coach Bill Vance stated. "We came into the contest after a rough physical and mental game against Mt. Sterling and our kids were just not up for East Clinton," Vance continued.

Dave Shannon, the Mustang quarterback, has a broken hand and will be out of the Piketon game. Larry Adams will move in and run the Westfall offense.

The rest of the Mustangs are suffering from bumps and bruises but are expected to be ready Friday night.

On offense the Mustangs will have Randy Metzger at tight end and Jim Akison at the split end.

JOE Jude and Jim Dawson will be the tackles with Artie Dick and Danny Lett at the guards. Randy Long will snap the ball.

Adams will call the signals with Gary Underwood, Alan Underwood, Larry Harris and Ted Musselman sharing the other backfield spots.

Dana Brigner and Long will be the defensive ends, Jude and Dawson the tackles and Harris at the middle guard position.

Dick will man one of the linebacker posts with a replacement yet to be named for Shannon.

Adams, Lett, Metzger and Musselman will round out the defensive secondary.

"We played one of the toughest schedules coming into the Scioto Valley Conference of any team," Logan Elm coach Bob Stant said today.

"WE feel our game against Teays Valley last week should have prepared us for the conference opener with Adena."

Adena has more speed than any other team the Braves will face this year although not nearly as big as the Vikings.

Last week Dwight Pettiford set a single game rushing record for the Warriors, dashing off 256 yards in 20 carries, an average of 12.8 per carry. The old record was held by Larry Hitchens, who missed last week's game because of an injury but is expected to be ready to go against the Braves.

In fullback Roger Ragland, the Adena squad has a griddy who is averaging 5.9 yards per carry. Dan Ater is the quarterback. It is a veteran backfield.

Adena has gained a total of 937 yards in three games, most of it on the ground, while limiting opposition to 503 yards, over half by passing.

"If we can get our offense going and pick up a few first downs, we'll have a good chance," Stant says.

THE Braves' offense has been riddled with injuries all season and received another blow Friday with Rick Blankenship receiving serious ligament damage to his knee. Blankenship is in a cast from his ankle to his hip and is out for the season.

Stant is working with a lot of new faces in the backfield. Kenny Kurtz, out since the first game, suited up for practice this week and is expected to be ready. He perhaps has the most experience at the halfback position although he has seen little action this year.

Other halfbacks are Greg Justus, a freshman; John Mead, a junior letterman; Gary Francis, recruited a week ago to bolster the injury ridden backfield; Punk Jones, whose backfield experience prior to last week was at quarterback.

Center is Chris Payne. Other starting linemen will be Mike Williams and Denny Schaal at guards, Steve Pusey and Brad Barr at tackles and Alex Jones and Bob Brown at ends.

Don Dean, injured in the first game, is working out again with the team and may see limited action at the guard position. Dean Godden will alternate with Brown at end and Jim Bigham will be available center when Payne needs a rest.

DEFENSIVELY the line will be Dan Phillips and John Mead at ends, Barr and Pusey at Tackles and Justus at middle guard. George Diehl, who has been playing middle guard, will be moved to a tackle position.

Linebackers are Punk Jones and Steve DeBruin, cornerbacks are Dean Godden and Bob Brown and safeties are Steve Fischer and Rod Howard. Williams and Teets will see a lot of defensive action.

Jim DeFranco, Cincinnati Elder senior and son of ex-Xavier star Jim, booted field goals of 22, 24 and 31 yards against Cincinnati Woodward. Cincinnati area kickers have 14 field goals in three games so far.

Cincinnati Walnut Hills Coach Will Stargel used defensive specialists Chuck Stewart and Ken Harritt just one offensive play each against Middletown and they both scored. Stewart ran 39 yards and Harris caught a 10-yard pass.

Ralph Garr, who extended his hitting streak to 22 games, drew after-game praise from Braves Manager Luman Harris. "Ralph Garr may break a lot of hitting records before he's through," said Harris.

Garr followed Felix Millan's two-out walk in the third with a double that gave Nickro the only run he needed. Then the Braves broke it open in the eighth.

After Garr and Hank Aaron singled, Earl Williams doubled them both home after he scored on Dusty Baker's double.

"I don't see how Earl Williams can miss being Rookie of the Year," said Harris.

Garr's 22-game hitting streak ties him with Aaron for the longest streak of the year for a Brave player. Additionally, it gives him the most hits 219 during a season for a Brave since the team has been in Atlanta.

He struck out three and did not give up a walk in beating Reds rookie Ross Grimsley, 10-7.

Long, a 6-foot-1, 230-pound senior from Toledo, was cited for his defensive play. He figured in 19 tackles, caught six runners behind the line, deflected a pass and caused a blocked punt in the Rockets' 23-0 victory over Texas-Arlington.

The league's offensive selection, Cates, 5-11, 190-pound sophomore from Columbus, rolled up 146 yards in 16 rushes and returned two kickoffs 4 yards as Western Michigan beat Northern Illinois 27-17.

Others considered by a panel of sports writers were Tony Bell of Bowling Green, Mike Poff and Marc Smith of Miami. Dave Juenger and Pete Rosar of Ohio University, Chuck Ealey of Toledo, Dennis Sweeney of Western Michigan and Eddie Woodard of Kent State.

Richards Sets CC Record At Southeastern

Steve Richards set a new cross country record of 10:28 at Southeastern to pace Circleville to a 19-36 win over Southeastern Tuesday on the latter course.

Richards fine time broke the old school record of 10:49.

The Tigers gained seven of the first 12 places and ran their season record to 5-0.

Dick Liston was second (10:31), Jeff Robbins third (10:42), Glen Gillespie fifth (10:51), Matt McGowan eighth (10:57), Joe McGowan ninth (11:00) and Pete McDaniel finished twelfth (11:47).

Southeastern is now 4-1 for the season in cross country competition.

Coach John Lawhorn will send his runners back into action 4:30 p.m. Thursday when they host Bexley at the fairgrounds.

Long, Cates Named Top MAC Pair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Toledo tackle Mel Long and Western Michigan halfback Larry Cates were named Mid-American Conference football players of the week today.

Long, a 6-foot-1, 230-pound senior from Toledo, was cited for his defensive play. He figured in 19 tackles, caught six runners behind the line, deflected a pass and caused a blocked punt in the Rockets' 23-0 victory over Texas-Arlington.

Buckeyes And Flossies Face Akron City Title Showdown

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Those football playing twins of Akron, the Flossies and Buckeyes, are on a winning timetable toward another city title showdown.

The Buckeyes, split end Don and quarterback Dave, led Akron Kenmore to a championship victory in 1970 over the Flossies, cornerback Bruce and quarterback Ben who play for Akron Garfield.

The Flossies star for their father-coach, Babe, at Garfield, which has scored three straight triumphs this fall.

Braves Stop Cincy Reds

ATLANTA (AP) — "I was getting ahead of most of the batters," declared knuckleballer Phil Niekro after his three-hitter carried Atlanta to a 4-0 triumph over Cincinnati and clinched third place for the Braves in the National League West.

"I also had a pretty good fast ball and a pretty good slider," said Niekro after his 15th victory. He has lost 14.

He struck out three and did not give up a walk in beating Reds rookie Ross Grimsley, 10-7.

Meet The Tigers

Jeff Harr (12) and Marc Warner (29) are senior members of the Circleville High School football team. Harr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harr, 710 Northridge Road, and Warner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Warner, 115 N. Washington St.

Richards Sets CC Record At Southeastern

Steve Richards set a new cross country record of 10:28 at Southeastern to pace Circleville to a 19-36 win over Southeastern Tuesday on the latter course.

Richards fine time broke the old school record of 10:49.

The Tigers gained seven of the first 12 places and ran their season record to 5-0.

Dick Liston was second (10:31), Jeff Robbins third (10:42), Glen Gillespie fifth (10:51), Matt McGowan eighth (10:57), Joe McGowan ninth (11:00) and Pete McDaniel finished twelfth (11:47).

Southeastern is now 4-1 for the season in cross country competition.

Coach John Lawhorn will send his runners back into action 4:30 p.m. Thursday when they host Bexley at the fairgrounds.

Braves Stop Cincy Reds

ATLANTA (AP) — "I was getting ahead of most of the batters," declared knuckleballer Phil Niekro after his three-hitter carried Atlanta to a 4-0 triumph over Cincinnati and clinched third place for the Braves in the National League West.

"I also had a pretty good fast ball and a pretty good slider," said Niekro after his 15th victory. He has lost 14.

He struck out three and did not give up a walk in beating Reds rookie Ross Grimsley, 10-7.

Local PP&K Contest Set For Saturday

The local Punt, Pass and Kick competition, sponsored by Rod Bell Motor Sales, will be held at noon Saturday at the high school practice field.

Boys 8-13 years of age are eligible but must sign up at Rod Bell's on N. Court St. by Friday. They must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. There is no entry fee or charge of any kind.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded in the local competition in each of the six age groups. Increasing the boys' chances of winning one of the 18 trophies is the fact that each boy competes against other boys his own age. And, since there is no body contact, a boy's size is not as important as his ability to punt, pass and place-kick for distance with accuracy.

It's possible that one or more of our local winners could wind up in the finals, which this year will be held at the Super Bowl Game on January 15. Here finalists and their parents-as Ford's guests will take a special tour of fabulous New Orleans, enjoy a Banquet of Champions celebration, and have the chance to meet some of the top professional players and coaches.

When he registers, each boy gets a free PP&K Tips Book. It contains helpful pointers from the pros on punting, passing and kicking. In the '71 edition are suggestions from NFL stars Dave Lewis, John Brodie and Curt Knight, plus coaches of the Year Ron McCafferty and Tom Landry. Complete PP&K rules and suggested conditioning exercises for contestants are also included.

This is the 11th year PP&K has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League. In that time more than 7,000,000 boys have taken part in PP&K, making it the biggest and best youth activity of its kind in America.

Public High School Loop Asks Merger

CINCINNATI (AP) — The eight-team Public High School League here was awaiting word today on its request to join the Hamilton County Suburban League for sports competition.

Raymond Brokamp, principal of Walnut Hills High School and chairman of the Cincinnati public school system's board of athletic control, said Tuesday that he sent a letter to the athletics supervisor of the suburban league on behalf of all public league members.

One year after Chris Speier was born, Maury Wills was playing his first season of professional baseball.

Tuesday night the two short-to a 7-1 victory over San Diego, keeping the Giants one game ahead of the Dodgers with two games remaining.

Wills cracked a run-scoring single, breaking a tie in the eighth inning and giving the Dodgers a 2-1 triumph over the Houston Astros.

"The best way to play the game is when everything you do means something," said Speier, who was not even on the Giants' roster at the start of spring training. "I like that. Sure, there's pressure but you try to put it out of your mind."

Asked how he felt being a rookie in a tinging pennant battle, he answered: "I wouldn't want it any other way. This is the biggest education I could get. I could play 20 years more and might not be in this situation again. I really enjoy it."

Wills, who already has played 20 years of professional baseball, including 13 in the majors, admitted he still gets nervous before a game.

"If you don't get butterflies anymore it means you're getting a little blasé or you don't care."

Wills can't be accused of either. "He's the guy who is really holding us together," said Manager Walt Alston. "He's been playing every day."

The Dodgers were locked in a 1-1 struggle with Houston and had been held to two hits by Don Wilson when Wills came to bat in the eighth inning with Bobby Valentine on second after drawing a one-out walk and being sacrificed by pitcher Bill Singer.

Wills then singled sharply off the glove of shortstop Roger Metzger. The ball rolled behind Metzger and into short center field as Valentine raced home with the decisive run.

The Dodgers' other run came on Duke Sims' homer leading off the sixth inning.

Wilson, 16-10, and Singer, 10-17, both finished with three-hitters in the rapidly played game which lasted only one hour and 37 minutes.

While the Giants and Dodgers were continuing their torrid duel for the West championship, Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh 6-3, Atlanta blanked Cincinnati 4-0, Montreal edged Chicago 5-4 and St. Louis downed New York 5-2 in other National League games.

Hungary, U.S. May Enjoy Thaw

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department and Hungarian diplomats are expressing hope for improved U.S.-Hungarian relations in the wake of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty's decision to leave the American embassy in Budapest after 15 years of asylum.

There were denials all around that the cardinal's departure Tuesday for Rome has any direct link to relations between the two countries, but officials from each government indicated optimism about settling outstanding issues.

Most active of these issues involves more than $100 million in claims against the Budapest government—$60 million the United States wants as compensation for war damage in nationalization of property and up to $50 million private American groups say is owed for defaulted bonds issued before World War II.

The last direct negotiations on these claims took place in May 1970 but State Department officials said there have been constant contacts on the matter "and we have some hope" for a solution. They denied, however, the Mindszenty decision was related to this hope.

An official at the Hungarian embassy said of Mindszenty's action: "We hope it might lead to better U.S.-Hungarian relations, but it really was a matter between the Vatican and Budapest, not the United States."

As a basis for their hopes State Department officials pointed to what they described as "a warm reception" given U.S. Postmaster General Winton Bland during a recent visit to Budapest to take part in an international stamp exhibit.

Nix, 27, has a lot of quarterback heroics to go before he really matches the 44-year-old Blanda, who left a disgruntled Bear more than a decade ago.

But Nix is off to a pretty good start this season, including his selection Tuesday as The AP's National Football League Offensive Player of the Week.

The honor came for the Texas Christian product's second successive game-winning performance as a relief specialist, the latest in exploding the Bears to a last-quarter, 20-17 upset of the Minnesota Vikings.

ACTION LINE—Head coach Bob Devaney of Nebraska keeps up a constant line of chatter on the sidelines as his Cornhuskers head into the football season with another win and generally-accepted No. 1 grid rating.

NEW YORK (AP) — "We're still waiting to play the best teams on our schedule—Colorado and Oklahoma."

The author of that statement is top-ranked Nebraska's Bob Devaney. This week he does not play Colorado or Oklahoma, but rather Utah State, which, like Nebraska, has a 3-0 record, but is unranked.

Coach Chuck Mills of the Aggies does not intend to plaster Devaney's remark all over the Utah State locker room.

"Far be it from me to refute Bob Devaney," says Mills. "What if it's true? We're just gonna go into Lincoln, Neb., and trade our blue jerseys for red ones like Nebraska wears and hope the fans get all mixed up."

"We're not gonna resort to psychology or do anything different. I think it just creates more problems for the kids if you do crazy things. Besides, we're in the great position of not being supposed to win."

"No, wait a minute: I'll trade positions with Bob Devaney. I'd like to be the one they're all shooting at. This is survival week for us. We'll have to check the kids' adrenalin and the dilation of their pupils. If they're not dilated we're in real trouble."

Bear Bryant considers a grade of 60 for offensive linemen as winning football. So where's John Hannah's Phi Beta Kappa key?

Big Bad John, all 6-foot-3 and 274 pounds of offensive guard, graded out at 91 per cent in Alabama's 38-0 victory over Florida Saturday, the highest ever for an offensive lineman in Bryant's 14 seasons at Tuscaloosa.

For that showing, Hannah was named national college Lineman of the Week by the Associated Press one of the few offensive linemen to attain that honor.

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Todd Starks wasn't recruited by the University of Tulsa until the last possible moment, didn't get tapped for starting quarterback until just before the season started and admits his first game was "terrible."

But his second game was something else. Three touchdown passes in the final quarter were enough for underdog Tulsa to topple seventh-ranked Arkansas and win National Back of the Week honors for the native Californian.

Nix, 27, has a lot of quarterback heroics to go before he really matches the 44-year-old Blanda, who left a disgruntled Bear more than a decade ago.

Guard Slain, Deputy Shot In Dayton Holdup-Shootout

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Five persons were in custody today, and another was being sought following a discount store hold-up and shootout that left a security guard dead and two people wounded.

Dead was Walter Wolfe, a father of six who worked as a guard at Henry's Discount Store to supplement his salary as a foreman at a local foundry.

Hospitalized with bullet wounds were Michael D'Amico Jr., 23, a Montgomery County deputy sheriff, and Larry Brown, 18, who authorities said was one of four men who robbed the store.

D'Amico was listed in serious condition at Good Samaritan Hospital and Brown was reported in fair condition.

Police said one of the gunmen shot Wolfe during the robbery. As they fled in a car, someone sounded a burglar alarm and D'Amico was dispatched to the store.

On arriving, D'Amico saw a car race out of the lot and gave chase. The car hit a utility pole near the west Dayton city limits, and D'Amico radioed he had apprehended four men.

As he held the men at gunpoint, an 8-year-old boy walked up to the wrecked car and was seized by one of the men, identified by police as Sam Nicholas Ford.

Using the boy as a shield, Ford and one of the other men escaped on foot. About the same time, police said, Brown grabbed a gun and shot D'Amico. The deputy returned the fire, wounding Brown.

D'Amico then handcuffed the fourth man, identified as Robert Harry Woodward, 17, of Dayton, and radioed for an ambulance.

Police later found Ford at his mother's apartment. The man who escaped from D'Amico with him remained at large.

Officers also arrested Ford's sister, Tina, 17, and a man identified as a friend of Ford's, Juan Osborne Jackson, 20, of Dayton, on charges of harboring a fugitive.

A complaint of obstructing officers also was filed against a Montgomery County welfare department worker, Marie Webster of Dayton, whom police said tried to bar their entrance to the apartment.

Rep. A. G. Lancione, D-30 Bellaire, House minority leader, urged colleagues to reject the Senate legislation because the sales tax "is not a fair tax" and because "no tax reform or relief" is provided.

Only Rep. Chester Cruze, R-68 Cincinnati, spoke in favor of concurring with the Senate. His arguments:

—Agreement would guarantee a fully-funded budget now. "We've waited long enough," he said.

—The sales tax has proven to be a popular tax. He cited national polls indicating 75 per cent of all Americans prefer it to any other.

—Enactment of a sales tax could be considered an economy move, especially when accompanied by cuts in welfare.

—Whatever "structural" defects there are in the bill can be taken care of in legislation next year.

—The Legislature can get on to other important matters, including environmental and omnibus crime legislation.

Cruze expressed doubt that a conference committee is equipped to cope with "philosophic or conceptual differences," and warned that what finally comes from that committee will be the product of a "heavily-lobbied bill handled by a few."

Conferees—expected to be six in number—to that conference committee are still to be named. Three are to be appointed from the House, and three from the Senate. Two from each house will represent the majority party, with the third being a Democrat.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore Gray, R-3 Piqua, has indicated Senators on the committee will be named following the upper chamber's afternoon session today.

The House will recess until Thursday to permit representatives to attend the funeral in Ironton of Rose Justice, a House secretary since 1963, and more recently to Speaker Charles Kurfess, R-4 Perrysburg.

Kurfess will probably appoint House conferees after today's skeleton session, set for late afternoon.

NIH Director Gets Fat Travel Fee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The director of one of the National Institutes of Health runs his $116.5-million agency for two months each year from a summer home on Cape Cod, drawing $25 a day in government travel expenses while doing it.

Dr. Edward F. MacNichol Jr., who earns $36,000 a year as head of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Stroke in Bethesda, Md., lives in his own house at Woods Hole, Mass., in July and August. He does not use vacation leave for the time he is there.

MacNichol says his main activities on Cape Cod are laboratory research and the reading of government and scientific documents.

MacNichol, who lives in Washington, contends the summer arrangement is proper and legal. But the General Accounting Office is investigating the director's Cape Cod expenditures at the request of a House Government Operations subcommittee.

Dr. Robert Q. Marston, director of NIH, said in an interview that, because of questions raised about the arrangement, he is reviewing NIH policy on out-of-town research financed with regular salary plus travel allowances.

Other scientists also work at Woods Hole during the summer, because it is an international gathering place for researchers, he said, but none has an arrangement similar to MacNichol's.

In a letter to NIH defending his practice of spending two months on Cape Cod, MacNichol wrote:

"I must admit that the surroundings are pleasant. I find that two months away from routine duties is absolutely essential to my carrying out my responsibilities. However, this is no vacation.

"Indeed, because of the relaxed atmosphere and freedom from the many conferences, all but the most important phone calls, and interruptions of routine business at NIH, I am able to work longer hours with less fatigue."

MacNichol's rebuttal, made available by NIH, answered an anonymous letter writer who complained to Marston and several members of Congress about the institute director's activities. MacNichol could not be reached for questions. His secretary said he had gone sailing.

MacNichol, a 53-year-old former professor of biophysics at Johns Hopkins University, wrote that continuation of summer research at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole was a condition he imposed before accepting the NIH job in 1968.

But Dr. James A. Shannon, the retired NIH chief who hired MacNichol, said in an interview he remembered no discussion of a Cape Cod office.

SSRC Probe Ends; President Indicted

CINCINNATI (AP) — A special grand jury has recommended six steps for overhauling the Hamilton County Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Commission while returning four indictments against its former president.

The special county grand jury, impaneled at the request of county prosecutor Simon Leis Jr. three weeks ago, said Tuesday that action is needed by the state legislature to bring the commission under "adequate control."

bombers and smaller tactical fighter-bombers hit at North Vietnamese troop concentrations and gun positions within 1,000 yards of the base.

Other B52s bombed within a few miles of the Cambodian rubber plantation town of Krek, seven miles from the Vietnamese border, where other Saigon forces are threatened by the North Vietnamese 5th Division.

Four U.S. and four South Vietnamese generals met in Tay Ninh to discuss the threats to the allied positions including a U.S. artillery base.

Minh and Lt. Gen. Nguyen Xuan Thinh, his deputy, said that after the heavy U.S. air strikes, the enemy rocket and mortar attacks had tapered off.

The Saigon command reported nine shelling Tuesday with a total bombardment of 600 rocket and mortars against South Vietnamese positions around Krek and in northern Tay Ninh Province. Informants said four South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 14 were wounded.

In an unusual move, Maj. Gen. Alton D. Slay, director of operations for the 7th Air Force, flew to Tay Ninh to supervise the installation of electronic beacons at fire support bases to guide in bombers in any kind of weather if the position is in danger of being overrun.

Monsoons had hampered air support and today's strikes were made through monsoon rains and heavy cloud cover. The bombers were guided to their targets by radar.

Guard Slain, Deputy Shot In Dayton Holdup-Shootout

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Five persons were in custody today, and another was being sought following a discount store hold-up and shootout that left a security guard dead and two people wounded.

Dead was Walter Wolfe, a father of six who worked as a guard at Henry's Discount Store to supplement his salary as a foreman at a local foundry.

Hospitalized with bullet wounds were Michael D'Amico Jr., 23, a Montgomery County deputy sheriff, and Larry Brown, 18, who authorities said was one of four men who robbed the store.

D'Amico was listed in serious condition at Good Samaritan Hospital and Brown was reported in fair condition.

Police said one of the gunmen shot Wolfe during the robbery. As they fled in a car, someone sounded a burglar alarm and D'Amico was dispatched to the store.

On arriving, D'Amico saw a car race out of the lot and gave chase. The car hit a utility pole near the west Dayton city limits, and D'Amico radioed he had apprehended four men.

As he held the men at gunpoint, an 8-year-old boy walked up to the wrecked car and was seized by one of the men.

Rep. A. G. Lancione, D-30 Belaire, House minority leader, urged colleagues to reject the Senate legislation because the sales tax "is not a fair tax" and because "no tax reform or relief" is provided.

Only Rep. Chester Cruze, R-68 Cincinnati, spoke in favor of concurring with the Senate. His arguments:

—Agreement would guarantee a fully-funded budget now. "We've waited long enough," he said.

—The sales tax has proven to be a popular tax. He cited national polls indicating 75 per cent of all Americans prefer it to any other.

—Enactment of a sales tax could be considered an economy move, especially when accompanied but cuts in welfare.

—Whatever "structural" defects there are in the bill can be taken care of in legislation next year.

—The Legislature can get on to other important matters, including environmental and omnibus crime legislation.

Cruze expressed doubt that a conference committee is equipped to cope with "philosophic or conceptual differences," and warned that what finally comes from that committee will be the product of a "heavily-lobbied bill handled by a few."

Conferees—expected to be six in number—to that conference committee are still to be named. Three are to be appointed from the House, and three from the Senate. Two from each house will represent the majority party, with the third being a Democrat.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore Gray, R-3 Piqua, has indicated Senators on the committee will be named following the upper chamber's afternoon session today.

The House will recess until Thursday to permit representatives to attend the funeral in Ironton of Rose Justice, a House secretary since 1963, and more recently to Speaker Charles Kurfess, R-4 Perysburg.

Kurfess will probably appoint House conferees after today's skeleton session, set for late afternoon.

The first conference committee could be replaced by a second one, with new members, if early attempts at accommodation prove fruitless.

identified by police as Sam Nicholas Ford.

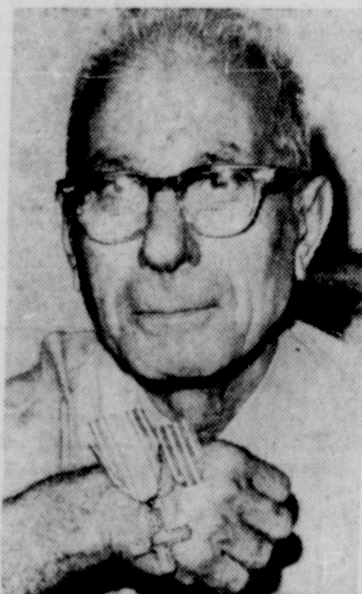

Using the boy as a shield, Ford and one of the other men escaped on foot. About the same time, police said, Brown grabbed a gun and shot D'Amico. The deputy returned the fire, wounding Brown.

D'Amico then handcuffed the fourth man, identified as Robert Harry Woodward, 17, of Dayton, and radioed for an ambulance.

Police later found Ford at his mother's apartment. The man who escaped from D'Amico with him remained at large.

Officers also arrested Ford's sister, Tina, 17, and a man identified as a friend of Ford's, Juan Osborne Jackson, 20, of Dayton, on charges of harboring a fugitive.

A complaint of obstructing officers also was filed against a Montgomery County welfare department worker, Marie Webster of Dayton, whom police said tried to bar their entrance to the apartment.

NIH Director Gets Fat Travel Fee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The director of one of the National Institutes of Health runs his $116.5-million agency for two months each year from a summer home on Cape Cod, drawing $25 a day in government travel expenses while doing it.

Dr. Edward F. MacNichol Jr., who earns $36,000 a year as head of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Stroke in Bethesda, Md., lives in his own house at Woods Hole, Mass., in July and August. He does not use vacation leave for the time he is there.

MacNichol says his main activities on Cape Cod are laboratory research and the reading of government and scientific documents.

MacNichol, who lives in Washington, contends the summer arrangement is proper and legal. But the General Accounting Office is investigating the director's Cape Cod expenditures at the request of a House Government Operations subcommittee.

Dr. Robert Q. Marston, director of NIH, said in an interview that, because of questions raised about the arrangement, he is reviewing NIH policy on out-of-town research financed with regular salary plus travel allowances.

Other scientists also work at Woods Hole during the summer, because it is an international gathering place for researchers, he said, but none has an arrangement similar to MacNichol's.

In a letter to NIH defending his practice of spending two months on Cape Cod, MacNichol wrote:

"I must admit that the surroundings are pleasant. I find that two months away from routine duties is absolutely essential to my carrying out my responsibilities. However, this is no vacation.

"Indeed, because of the relaxed atmosphere and freedom from the many conferences, all but the most important phone calls, and interruptions of routine business at NIH, I am able to work longer hours with less fatigue."

MacNichol's rebuttal, made available by NIH, answered an anonymous letter writer who complained to Marston and several members of Congress about the institute director's activities. MacNichol could not be reached for questions. His secretary said he had gone sailing.

MacNichol, a 53-year-old former professor of biophysics at Johns Hopkins University, wrote that continuation of summer research at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole was a condition he imposed before accepting the NIH job in 1968.

But Dr. James A. Shannon, the retired NIH chief who hired MacNichol, said in an interview he remembered no discussion of a Cape Cod office.

SSRC Probe Ends; President Indicted

CINCINNATI (AP) — A special grand jury has recommended six steps for overhauling the Hamilton County Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Commission while returning four indictments against its former president.

The special county grand jury, impaneled at the request of county prosecutor Simon Leis Jr. three weeks ago, said Tuesday that action is needed by the state legislature to bring the commission under "adequate control."

bombers and smaller tactical fighter-bombers hit at North Vietnamese troop concentrations and gun positions within 1,000 yards of the base.

Other B52s bombed within a few miles of the Cambodian rubber plantation town of Krok, seven miles from the Vietnamese border, where other Saigon forces are threatened by the North Vietnamese 5th Division.

Four U.S. and four South Vietnamese generals met in Tay Ninh to discuss the threats to the allied positions including a U.S. artillery base.

Minh and Lt. Gen. Nguyen Xuan Tinh, his deputy, said that after the heavy U.S. air strikes, the enemy rocket and mortar attacks had tapered off.

The Saigon command reported nine shelling Tuesday with a total bombardment of 600 rocket and mortars against South Vietnamese positions around Krok and in northern Tay Ninh Province. Informants said four South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 14 were wounded.

In an unusual move, Maj. Gen. Alton D. Slay, director of operations for the 7th Air Force, flew to Tay Ninh to supervise the installation of electronic beacons at fire support bases to guide in bombers in any kind of weather if the position is in danger of being overrun.

Monsoons had hampered air support and today's strikes were made through monsoon rains and heavy cloud cover. The bombers were guided to their targets by radar.
